Individual criminal responsibility includes committing, planning, instigating, ordering or otherwise aiding and abetting in the planning, preparation or execution of any crimes referred to in Articles 2 to 5 of the Tribunal Statute. By using the word "committed" in this Joinder Indictment, the Prosecutor does not intend to suggest that any of the accused physically perpetrated any of the crimes charged personally.

13. VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC is also criminally responsible as commander for the acts of his subordinates pursuant to Article 7(3) of the Tribunal Statute if he knew or had reason to know that his subordinates were about to commit such acts or had done so and he failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.

JOINT CRIMINAL ENTERPRISE

15. VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC and DRAGAN JOKIC, together with other VRS and MUP officers and units, as identified in this Joinder Indictment, were members of and knowingly participated in a Joint Criminal Enterprise, the common purpose of which was: to forcibly transfer the women and children from the Srebrenica enclave to Kladanj, on 12 July and 13 July 1995; and to capture, detain, summarily execute by firing squad and bury thousands of Bosnian Muslim men and boys aged 16 to 60 from the Srebrenica enclave from 12 July 1995 until and about 19 July 1995. The last known primary burial of Srebrenica victims occurred on or about 19 July 1995 in Glogova. The initial plan was to summarily execute more than 1000 Bosnian Muslim men and boys, aged 16-60, who were separated from the group of Bosnian Muslims in Potocari on 12 and 13 July. On 12 July, this plan was broadened to include the summary execution of over 6000 men and boys, aged 16 to 60, who were captured from the column of Bosnian Muslim men escaping the Srebrenica enclave on 12 July through about 19 July 1995. Most of these men and boys from the column were captured along the Bratunac/Milici road on 13 July 1995. While the Joint Criminal Enterprise contemplated organised and systematic executions, it was foreseeable that opportunistic criminal acts, such as those described in this Joinder Indictment, would be carried out by VRS and MUP forces during and after the Joint Criminal Enterprise. VRS and MUP forces carried out such opportunistic criminal acts from 12 July 1995 to about 1 November 1995. The implementation of this Joint Criminal Enterprise resulted in the summary execution of over 7000 Bosnian Muslim men and boys from the Srebrenica enclave. VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, and DRAGAN JOKIC possessed the criminal intent and state of mind required for the commission of the individual crimes charged in the Joinder Indictment, and their acts significantly assisted and facilitated the commission of the crimes. The specific acts and responsibilities of VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, AND DRAGAN JOKIC pursuant to this Joint Criminal Enterprise are described as follows in the Joinder Indictment: VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, paragraphs 15-17, 19-25, 25.1-25.12, 26-27, 27.1-27.7, 28-29, 29.1-29.3, 30, 32-33, 40, and 42; DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, paragraphs 15-17, 19, 21-25, 25.4-25.12, 26-27, 27.2-27.7, 28-29, 29.1-29.3, 31-33, and 40; and DRAGAN JOKIC, paragraphs 15-17, 21-25, 25.6, 25.8,-25.12, 26-27, 27.2-27.5, 27.7, 29, 29.1-29.3, 32-33, and 40.
16. The Joint Criminal Enterprise, of which VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, and DRAGAN JOKIC were key members and participants, was conceived and designed by General Ratko Mladic and others on 11 and 12 July 1995, and administered and carried out by members of the VRS and MUP forces through the time period and by the means alleged in this Joinder Indictment.

17. Members of this Joint Criminal Enterprise included: General Ratko Mladic, the Commander of the VRS, General Milenko Zivanovic, Commander of the Drina Corps through about 2000 hours on 13 July 1995; General Radislav Krstic, Chief of Staff/Deputy Commander through about 2000 hours on 13 July 1995 and thereafter Commander of the Drina Corps; VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, Commander of the Bratunac Brigade; Vinko Pandurevic, Commander of the Zvornik Brigade; DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, Deputy Commander of the Zvornik Brigade; Colonel Ljubisa Beara, Chief of Security of the Main Staff; Lieutenant Colonel Vujadin Popovic, Chief of Security of the Drina Corps; Momir Nikolic, Assistant Commander for Security and Intelligence, Bratunac Brigade; DRAGAN JOKIC, Chief of Engineering of the Zvornik Brigade and various other individuals and military and police units, including but not limited to the following:

CHARGES

(Complicity to commit Genocide)

19. Between 11 July 1995 and 1 November 1995, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC and DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, with intent to destroy a part of the Bosnian Muslim people as a national, ethnical, or religious group:

(a) killed members of the group; and,

(b) caused serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group.

20. Twice on the evening of 11 July and once on the morning of 12 July 1995, Ratko Mladic and other VRS representatives convened critical meetings at the Hotel Fontana in Bratunac concerning the fate of the refugees who had fled from the Srebrenica enclave to Potocari. Momir Nikolic, Assistant Commander for Security and Intelligence for the Bratunac Brigade, under the command of VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, attended the first two of these three meetings. During this time period from the late evening of 11 July to the early morning of 12 July 1995, the plan to forcibly transfer the civilian refugee population of Potocari and to murder the Bosnian Muslim males from Potocari was developed by General Mladic, his command staff, and others. Later in the day on 12 July 1995, the plan to murder Bosnian Muslim prisoners was extended to those prisoners captured from the Bosnian Muslim column escaping from the Srebrenica enclave on and after 12 July 1995. VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, acting in concert with other VRS and MUP commanders and units as identified in this Joinder Indictment, participated in the execution of the plan to forcibly transfer Bosnian Muslims from the Srebrenica enclave. Additionally, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC knew or had reason to know that his subordinates would and did participate in these criminal acts, and he failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.
21. On or about 12 July 1995, in the presence of Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, and officers and soldiers from the Bratunac Brigade, MUP, and other units, approximately 50 to 60 buses and trucks arrived near the UN military compound in Potocari. Shortly after the arrival of these vehicles, the forcible transfer process of Bosnian Muslim women and children began. As Bosnian Muslim women, children and men started to board the buses and trucks, VRS and/or MUP soldiers acting in concert, under the command of Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, and others separated over 1000 Bosnian Muslim men from the women and children and transported these men to temporary detention sites in Bratunac on 12 and 13 July 1995. Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, and other commanders knew that these men separated in Potocari would later be summarily executed by VRS and/or MUP units. These Bosnian Muslim men separated in Potocari were in fact later summarily executed in the Zvornik Brigade zone of responsibility from 14 through 16 July, as alleged in this Joinder Indictment, with the full knowledge and active participation of Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, DRAGAN JOKIC, and others. Additionally, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC and DRAGAN OBRENOVIC knew or had reason to know that their subordinates would and did participate in these criminal acts, and they failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.
22. VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, acting in concert with other VRS and MUP officers and units in the Joint Criminal Enterprise as identified in this Joinder Indictment, participated in the execution of the plan to capture and murder Bosnian Muslim men from the column of men retreating from the Srebrenica enclave on or after 12 July 1995. Bratunac Brigade troops under the command and control of VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, acting in concert with other VRS and/or MUP units in furtherance of the Joint Criminal Enterprise, participated in the capture of men from the column. Approximately 6000 Bosnian Muslim prisoners were captured on 13 July 1995 and taken to the same temporary detention sites in and around Bratunac as those men separated from Potocari. Members of the Bratunac Brigade Military Police under the command and control of VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC participated in the guarding of the prisoners and the escort of those prisoners to holding and execution sites in the Zvornik Brigade zone of responsibility. These Bosnian Muslim prisoners were later summarily executed in the Zvornik Brigade zone of responsibility from 14 July through 16 July 1995, with the full knowledge of Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, DRAGAN JOKIC, and others, as alleged in this Joinder Indictment. Additionally, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC and DRAGAN OBRENOVIC knew or had reason to know that their subordinates would and did participate in these criminal acts, and they failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.

23. DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, acting in concert with other VRS and MUP officers and units in the Joint Criminal Enterprise as identified in this Joinder Indictment, participated in the execution of the plan to capture and murder over 6000 Bosnian Muslim men from the Srebrenica enclave on or after 12 July 1995. Between 13 and 16 July 1995, the Zvornik Brigade Military Police, under the command and control of DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, was involved in scouting the detention sites for the Bosnian Muslim prisoners to be executed in the Zvornik Brigade zone of responsibility. Between 14 and 16 July 1995, Bosnian Muslim prisoners were transported to these detention and execution sites in the Zvornik Brigade zone of responsibility, where they were guarded and subsequently executed by members of the Zvornik Brigade, acting in concert with other VRS and MUP units and under the command and control of Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, Vinko Pandurevic, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, DRAGAN JOKIC, and others, as alleged in this Joinder Indictment. These Bosnian Muslim prisoners were executed with the full knowledge of Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, Vinko Pandurevic, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, DRAGAN JOKIC, and others, as alleged in this Joinder Indictment. Additionally, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC and DRAGAN OBRENOVIC knew or had reason to know that their subordinates would and did participate in these criminal acts, and they failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.
24. VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, acting in concert with other VRS and MUP officers and units in the Joint Criminal Enterprise as identified in this Joinder Indictment, planned, instigated, ordered or otherwise aided and abetted in the planning, preparation or execution of a planned and organised mass execution and burial of thousands of captured Bosnian Muslim men from the Srebrenica enclave from about 11 July through about 19 July 1995. From about 12 July through about 19 July 1995, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, and DRAGAN JOKIC, and other VRS and MUP officers and units, as identified in this Joinder Indictment, planned, instigated, ordered or otherwise aided and abetted in the planning, preparation or execution of a planned and organised mass execution and burial operation of thousands of captured Bosnian Muslim men from the Srebrenica enclave. Additionally, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC and DRAGAN OBRENOVIC knew or had reason to know that their subordinates would and did participate in these criminal acts, and they failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators thereof.
25. The wide-scale and organised killing and burial of Bosnian Muslim men, implemented and overseen by VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, AND DRAGAN JOKIC as referred to above, by VRS and MUP officers and units in the Joint Criminal Enterprise acting in concert with each other and under the command and control of Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, Vinko Pandurevic, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, DRAGAN JOKIC, and others as described in this Joinder Indictment, occurred in several different locations in and around Srebrenica and Zvornik from 12 July 1995 until about 19 July 1995, including:

The bodies were then taken away on a truck. All of these Bosnian Muslim men had been taken prisoner from among the group of Bosnian Muslims in Potocari by VRS and/or MUP soldiers working together with other individuals and units in the Joint Criminal Enterprise and under the command and control of Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC, and others.

The soldiers used automatic weapons, hand grenades and other weaponry to kill the Bosnian Muslims inside the warehouse. On 14 July 1995, heavy equipment arrived and removed the victims' bodies to a large mass grave located in the nearby village of Glogova and Ravnice in the Bratunac Brigade zone of responsibility. These Bosnian Muslim men had been captured from the column of men retreating from the Srebrenica enclave by VRS and/or MUP officers and units, working together, in furtherance of the Joint Criminal Enterprise, with units under the control of VIDOJE BLAGOJEVIC. This execution was a natural and foreseeable consequence of the Joint Criminal Enterprise, of which DRAGAN OBRENOVIC was a member by at least the early evening hours of 13 July 1995.

Most of the Bosnian Muslim women and children forcibly transferred to Tisca were permitted to cross into Bosnian Muslim territory. However, VRS soldiers from the Vlasenica Brigade of the Drina Corps identified and separated some of the remaining Bosnian Muslim men and boys aged 16 to 60 and some of the Bosnian Muslim women from this group at Tisca. Throughout the day on 13 July 1995, VRS soldiers from the Vlasenica Brigade, working together with other individuals and units in the Joint Criminal Enterprise and under the command and control of Ratko Mladic and others, forced the selected Bosnian Muslim men and women to walk to a nearby school, where they were taunted and assaulted by VRS soldiers. - 44. At all relevant times, the accused were required to abide by the laws and customs governing the conduct of war.
- 45. All acts and omissions charged as crimes against humanity were part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against the Bosnian Muslim civilian population of Srebrenica and its surroundings.

ADDITIONAL FACTS

46. On 12 May 1992, Momcilo Krajisnik, President of the RS National Assembly executed the following "DECISION ON STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES OF THE SERBIAN PEOPLE IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA"; this Decision was published in the Official Gazette of the Republika Srpska on 26 November 1993:

"The strategic objectives or priorities of the Serbian people in Bosnia and Herzegovina are to:

1. Establish State borders separating the Serbian people from the other two ethnic communities.
 2. Set up a corridor between Semberija and Krajina.
 3. Establish a corridor in the Drina river valley, that is, eliminate the Drina as a border separating Serbian States.
 4. Establish a border on the Una and Neretva rivers.
 5. Divide the city of Sarajevo into Serbian and Bosnian Muslim parts and establish effective State authorities in both parts.
 6. Ensure access to the sea for Republika Srpska."
47. After armed conflict erupted in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina ("BiH") in the spring of 1992, Bosnian Serb military and paramilitary forces attacked and occupied cities, towns and villages, including Zvornik, in the eastern part of the country and participated in an ethnic cleansing campaign which resulted in an exodus of Bosnian Muslim civilians to enclaves in Srebrenica, Gorazde and Zepa.
48. DRAGAN OBRENOVIC, in his capacity as the Acting Commander of an armour battalion of the former JNA 4th Armour Brigade, worked together with paramilitary leader Zeljko Raznjatovic (also known as "Arkan") in the attack and take-over of the town of Zvornik on or about 8 April 1992.
49. On 19 November 1992, General Ratko Mladic, the Commander of the VRS Main Staff, issued Operational Directive 04. This Directive, in part, ordered the Drina Corps to "... inflict the heaviest possible losses on the enemy, and force him to leave the Birac, Zepa and Gorazde areas together with the Bosnian Muslim population. First, offer the able-bodied and armed men to surrender, and if they refuse, destroy them."
50. On 16 April 1993, the Security Council of the United Nations, acting pursuant to Chapter VII of its Charter, adopted Resolution 819, in which it demanded that all parties to the conflict in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina treat Srebrenica and its surroundings as a "safe area" which was to be free from any armed attack or any other hostile act.
51. On 4 July 1994, Lieutenant Colonel Slavko Ognjenovic, then Commander of the Bratunac Brigade, issued a report to all members of the Bratunac Brigade stating in relevant part; "We must continue to arm, train, discipline, and prepare the RS Army for the execution of this crucial task — the expulsion of Muslims from the Srebrenica enclave. There will be no retreat when it comes to the Srebrenica enclave, we must advance. The enemy's life has to be made unbearable and their temporary stay in the enclave impossible so that they leave the enclave en masse as soon as possible, realising that they cannot survive there."

52. On 8 March 1995, the Supreme Command of the Armed Forces of the Republika Srpska issued Operational Directive 07. In this Directive, Republika Srpska President Radovan Karadzic directed the VRS (specifically the VRS Drina Corps) to "...complete the physical separation of the Srebrenica and Zepa enclaves as soon as possible, preventing even communication between individuals between the two enclaves. By planned and well-thought-out combat operations, create an unbearable situation of total insecurity, with no hope of further survival or life for the inhabitants of Srebrenica or Zepa."
53. On 2 July 1995, in the Drina Corps operational order for the attack on the Srebrenica enclave, General Milenko Zivanovic ordered that the attack of the enclave should result in "reducing the enclave to its urban area". The size of the enclave on 2 July 1995 was approximately 58 square kilometres and the urban area of the enclave was about two (2) square kilometres. Large numbers of the Bosnian Muslim population of the enclave lived outside the urban area of Srebrenica prior to 2 July 1995.
54. On or about 6 July 1995, units of the Drina Corps shelled Srebrenica and attacked Dutch-manned United Nations observation posts which were located in the enclave. The Drina Corps attack on the Srebrenica enclave, including the shelling, continued through 11 July 1995, when forces from the Zvornik Brigade's Drina Wolves, the Bratunac Brigade, the 10th Sabotage Detachment and other units of the VRS entered Srebrenica.
55. The Bosnian Muslim men, women and children who were in Srebrenica after the beginning of the VRS attack took two courses of action. Several thousand women, children and some mostly elderly men fled to the UN Compound in Potocari, located within the enclave of Srebrenica, where they sought the protection of the Dutch battalion. The Bosnian Muslim civilians remained in and around Potocari from 11 July until 13 July 1995, during which time they were terrorised by members of the VRS and the MUP. Thereafter, they were transported by buses and trucks under the control of the VRS to areas outside the enclave.
56. A second group of approximately 15,000 Bosnian Muslim men, with some women and children, gathered at Susnjari village near Srebrenica during the evening of 11 July 1995 and fled, in a huge column, through the woods towards Tuzla. Approximately one-third of this group consisted of armed Bosnian Muslim military personnel. The rest were unarmed military personnel and civilians. The column travelled through the Zvornik Brigade zone of responsibility with significant combat occurring between the column and VRS and MUP forces on the afternoon of 14 July, the day of 15 July, and the morning of 16 July.
57. As alleged above, three critical meetings were conducted at the Hotel Fontana in Bratunac on the evening of 11 July and the morning of 12 July 1995. At the first meeting, held at approximately 2000 hours on 11 July, Ratko Mladic met with other members of the VRS and with the Dutchbat command. The second meeting, held at approximately 2300 hours on 11 July, was attended by Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, and other members of the VRS, as well as members of the Dutchbat command and representatives of the Bosnian Muslim refugees at Potocari. At the third meeting, held at about 1000 hours on 12 July 1995 and attended by Ratko Mladic, Radislav Krstic, Vujadin Popovic, other VRS and Bosnian Serb civilian representatives, Dutchbat officers, and representatives of the Bosnian Muslim refugees at Potocari, Ratko Mladic explained to the group that he would supervise the "evacuation" of refugees from Potocari and that he wanted to see all the Bosnian Muslim men between approximately the ages of 16 and 60 to screen for possible war criminals.
58. On 12 July through about 20 July, Bosnian Serb forces assigned to the Bratunac, Zvornik and Milici Brigades, as well as elements of the 5th Engineer Battalion, the 65th Protection Regiment, MUP municipal forces and MUP Special Police forces, under the command of Ratko Mladic and others, supported by armoured personnel carriers, tanks, anti-aircraft guns and artillery, positioned themselves along the Bratunac/Milici road in an attempt to intercept the column. Thousands of Bosnian Muslims from the retreating column were captured by, or surrendered to, Bosnian Serb military forces under the command and control of Ratko Mladic and others. Over 5,000 Bosnian Muslim prisoners captured in this area were transported to Bratunac and then to the Zvornik Brigade zone of responsibility where they were summarily executed from 14 July through 16 July, as described in this Joinder Indictment.

59. On 16 July 1995, after the VRS suffered serious losses in combat with the Bosnian Muslim column in the area of Baljkovica, the VRS and BiH commands agreed to a temporary truce to allow the column to pass over to BiH territory in the area of Nezuk. Several thousand members of the column did pass over to BiH territory during the truce period on about 16 and 17 July. However, many hundreds of Bosnian Muslim men from the column were unable to cross over to BiH territory at that time and became trapped behind VRS lines in the Drina Corps zone of responsibility. From about 18 July through about 1 November, the remaining members of the Bosnian Muslim column either eventually escaped over to BiH territory or were captured or killed by the VRS and MUP forces.
60. What limited identification data is available for the victims of the Srebrenica genocide is set forth in Annex B to this Joinder Indictment. Such forensic data positively identifying the victims is presently of limited availability for several reasons including: the fact that many of the victims' identification documents and personal possessions were appropriated prior to their death; the advanced state of decomposition of the bodies at the eventual discovery of the concealed mass graves; and the process by which the perpetrators disinterred the bodies at many of the mass graves using heavy machinery and reburied them en masse in still more remote locations, resulting in the severe mutilation, disarticulation, and redistribution of bodies and body parts between primary and secondary graves.
