TRIAL CHAMBER I (“Trial Chamber”) of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”);

CONSIDERING that at the status conference held on 18 January 2008 the Trial Chamber raised the matter of start of trial with the Parties and proposed dates for pre-trial conference, opening statements and commencement of presentation of evidence of the Prosecution;¹

CONSIDERING that prior to the status conference, on 10 December 2007 the Trial Chamber informed the Parties by way of email from its Senior Legal Officer that they should begin making plans for commencement of trial in the early March 2008 time frame;

CONSIDERING the concerns of the Prosecution and the Defence expressed at the status conference in terms of readiness for trial and family and business commitments;²

CONSIDERING that the trial was initially scheduled to commence on 7 May 2007 and that it was subsequently postponed until further notice;³

CONSIDERING the Trial Chamber’s duty, enshrined in Article 20(1) of the Statute, to ensure that a trial is fair and expeditious and that proceedings are conducted in accordance with the Rules, with full respect for the rights of the accused and due regard for the protection of victims and witnesses;

CONSIDERING that the present order is in keeping with the rights of the Accused as set out in Article 21(4)(b) and (c) of the Statute;

CONSIDERING that Ivan Čermak is on provisional release and is subject to several conditions, notably to return to the custody of the Tribunal at such time and on such date as the Trial Chamber may order, and to comply strictly with any order issued by the Trial Chamber varying the terms of, or terminating, the provisional release;⁴

PURSUANT TO Articles 20 and 29 of the Statute and Rules 65, 73 bis, 84:

² Status Conference, 18 January 2008, T. 343-350.

³ Scheduling Order, 17 January 2007, which scheduled opening statements to begin to be heard on 7 May 2007 and presentation of evidence for the Prosecution to commence on 9 May 2007; Scheduling Order 19 April 2007, whereby the Pre-Trial Conference, the Opening Statement of the Prosecution, the Opening Statement of the Defence, if any, and the presentation of evidence for the Prosecution were postponed until further notice.
