THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL TRIBUNAL
FOR THE FORMER YUGOSLAVIA

CASE NO: IT-04-84-PT

THE PROSECUTOR OF THE TRIBUNAL AGAINST

IDRIZ BALAJ
LAHI BRAHIMAJ

REVISED SECOND AMENDED INDICTMENT

The Prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, pursuant to her authority under Article 18 of the Statute of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, charges:

Ramush Haradinaj
Idriz Balaj
Lahi Brahimaj

with CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY and VIOLATIONS OF THE LAWS OR CUSTOMS OF WAR as set forth below:

THE ACCUSED

1. Ramush Haradinaj (also known as “Smajl”) was born on 3 July 1968 in Glodane/Gilloglan, in the municipality of Dečani/Deçan in Kosovo, in the former Yugoslavia.

2. From at least 1 March 1998 until mid-June 1998, Ramush Haradinaj was a de facto commander in the Ushtria Çlirimtare e Kosovës (UÇK), otherwise known as the Kosovo Liberation Army (KLA). In mid-June 1998, Ramush Haradinaj was appointed a de jure commander. As a commander, Ramush Haradinaj

1 Because many places in Kosovo are known by both a Serbian and an Albanian name, all places are identified by their Serbian name first and their Albanian name second.
Haradinaj had overall command of the KLA forces in the Dukagjin Operational Zone, located in western Kosovo. He was one of the most senior KLA leaders in Kosovo.

3. The Dukagjin Operational Zone encompassed the municipalities of Peć/Pejë, Dečani/Deçan, Đakovica/Gjakovë, and parts of the municipalities of Istok/Istog and Klina/Klinë. The villages of Barane/Baran, Belo Polje/Belopoje, Kosurić/Kosuriq, Loda/Loxhë, Lower Novo Selo/Novo Sello, Nepolje/Nepolë, Peć/Pejë, Turjak/Turjakë, and Zahać/Zahaq in Peć/Pejë municipality; Babaloć/Baballoq, Dašinovac/Đashinoc, Dečani/Deçan, Djoci/Gjocaj, Dubrava/Dubravë, Glodane/Gllogjan, Gramočelj/Gramaqel, Junik/Junik, Ločane/Lloçan, Požar/Pozhare, Ratiš/Ratishë, and Rznić/Irziq in Dečani/Deçan municipality; Đakovica/Gjakovë, Dujak/Dujakë, Jablanica/Jabllanicë, Piskote/Piskotë, Pljančor/Plançar, and Žabelj/Zhabel, in Đakovica/Gjakovë municipality; Dolac/Dolë and Grabanica/Grabanicë in Klina/Klinë municipality; and the Lake Radonjić/Radoniq canal area were within the area of Ramush Haradinaj’s command and control.

4. In spring 1998, the KLA had a General Staff but no identified supreme commander was giving orders. Each KLA operational area in Kosovo acted independently of the senior command authority. Ramush Haradinaj was one of the most independent zone commanders. He based his military operations at his family compound in Glodane/Gllogjan which became the KLA headquarters for the Dukagjin Operational Zone.

5. By early April 1998, parts of Dečani/Deçan and Đakovica/Gjakovë around Ramush Haradinaj’s Glodane/Gllogjan base were firmly under his control, and by late June 1998 he had extended his control into the neighbouring municipalities of Peć/Pejë, Istok/Istog, and Klina/Klinë. As the Dukagjin Operational Zone Commander, Ramush Haradinaj controlled local KLA units. Sub-zone commanders in the zone received and followed his orders. In addition to his military authority, in the clan-based structure of Kosovar society, Ramush Haradinaj was a prominent figure in the area of his native village of Glodane/Gllogjan and in the municipality of Dečani/Deçan.
6. Ramush Haradinaj held his position as the Dukagjin Operational Zone Commander throughout the armed conflict in Kosovo until at least the cessation of hostilities in June 1999.

7. In 1999, Ramush Haradinaj joined the Kosovo Protection Corps (KPC), a new force created by the United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo (UNMIK) in order to integrate KLA units into the new internationally-administered force structures in Kosovo. He became Commander of the Second Regional Task Group of the KPC based in Prizren/Prizren. In 2000, he resigned from his function in the KPC and founded a political party called “The Alliance for the Future of Kosovo.” He was a Member of Parliament from 2001 until 2004. In December 2004, he became the Prime Minister of Kosovo.

8. Idriz Balaj (also known as “Toger/Togeri” meaning “Lieutenant”) was born on 23 August 1971 in Iglairevo/Gllarevë, in the municipality of Klina/Klinë in Kosovo, in the former Yugoslavia.

9. At all times relevant to this indictment, Idriz Balaj was a member of the KLA. He commanded a special unit known as the “Black Eagles.” With the approval of Ramush Haradinaj, the Black Eagles unit was created in April 1998 as a Rapid Intervention Special Unit. This unit was usually headquartered in Rzinë/Rziniq village, its numbers varied from 40 to 100 soldiers, and its members came from several villages. Ramush Haradinaj helped Idriz Balaj to train the Black Eagles who operated throughout the municipalities in the Dukagjin Operational Zone. As Commander of the Black Eagles, Idriz Balaj was directly subordinated to Ramush Haradinaj and worked closely with him.

10. In 1999, after the cessation of hostilities, Idriz Balaj joined the KPC and held the rank of Major.

11. Lahi Brahima (also known as “Maxhup” meaning “Gypsy”) was born on 26 January 1970 in Jablanica/Jabllanicë, in the municipality of Djakovica/Gjakovë, in Kosovo, in the former Yugoslavia. Lahi Brahimag is Ramush Haradinaj’s uncle.

12. At all times relevant to this indictment, Lahi Brahimag was a member of the KLA and stationed at the Jablanica/Jablanicë Headquarters. He was appointed Deputy Commander of the Dukagjin Operative Staff on 23 June 1998. He remained Deputy Commander until 5 July 1998, when he was removed from this position. His brother, Nazmi Brahimag, was then appointed to replace him as Deputy Commander of the Dukagjin Operative Staff. Lahi Brahimag then continued to serve as Finance Director of the KLA General Staff. Throughout the entire indictment period, despite the change in his formal position, Lahi Brahimag was a subordinate of Ramush Haradinaj and worked closely with him. After the cessation of hostilities, Lahi Brahimag became a high-ranking officer in the KPC.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

13. All acts or omissions alleged in this indictment as crimes against humanity or violations of the laws or customs of war occurred between 1 March 1998 and 30 September 1998 in Kosovo, in the former Yugoslavia.

14. At all times relevant to this indictment, a state of armed conflict existed in Kosovo between the KLA, and the forces of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and the Ministry of the Interior of the Republic of Serbia (Serbian Forces). The crimes alleged in this indictment under Article 3 of the Statute of the Tribunal were closely related to the armed conflict. The victims of those crimes were persons taking no active part in hostilities. The victims were mainly Serb, Kosovar Albanian, or Kosovar Roma/Egyptian civilians or other civilians. The KLA perceived most of these civilian victims to be collaborating with the Serbian Forces, not supporting the KLA, or resisting the KLA by non-military means.

15. All acts or omissions charged as crimes against humanity in this indictment were part of a widespread or systematic attack by the KLA directed against part of the civilian population in the Dečani/Deçan, Peć/Pejë, Đakovica/Gjakovë, Istok/Istog, and Klina/Klinë municipalities of Kosovo. The civilian population against whom the attack was directed comprised the Serb civilian population in these municipalities as well as civilians perceived to be collaborating with the Serbs or otherwise not supporting the KLA. Each Accused knew that his conduct, including the murders, torture, abductions, forcible transfers, persecutory acts, inhumane acts, unlawful detention, and other acts of violence against Serb, Kosovar Albanian, and Kosovar Roma/Egyptian civilians, and other civilians, charged in this indictment, comprised part of the attack.

16. At all times relevant to this indictment, Ramush Haradinaj, Idriz Balaj, and Lahi Brahimaj were required to abide by the laws and customs governing the conduct of armed conflicts, including the Geneva Conventions of 1949.

INDIVIDUAL CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

17. Ramush Haradinaj, Idriz Balaj, and Lahi Brahimaj are each charged, pursuant to Article 7(1) of the Statute of the Tribunal, as being individually criminally responsible for the crimes charged in this indictment.

18. “Committing” in this indictment includes the physical perpetration of a crime, either by act or omission, or the participation by an Accused in a joint criminal enterprise (JCE).

19. Each Accused is charged with committing the crimes charged as participants in the JCE described in paragraphs 26 and 27. In the alternative, each Accused is charged with having planned, instigated, ordered, committed, or otherwise aided and abetted the planning, preparation, or execution of the crimes as set out in the counts referred to in paragraphs 22 to 24.

20. For the modes of liability of planning, instigating, or ordering the crimes charged, each Accused acted with the awareness of the substantial likelihood that the crimes would be committed in the execution of the plan, order, or instigation. For the mode of liability of aiding and abetting, each Accused was aware that his acts or omissions assisted in the commission of crimes charged in this indictment or was aware that one of a number of crimes would probably be committed and that his acts or omissions would assist in the commission of such crime or crimes.

21. All acts or omissions charged as persecution were either committed by an Accused with the intent to discriminate against the victims on the basis of religious, political, or racial considerations, or a combination of these, or were planned, instigated, ordered, or aided and abetted by an Accused with the awareness of a substantial likelihood that persecution as a crime against humanity would be committed in the execution of the order, plan, or instigation, or as a result of the aiding and abetting.

22. Alternatively to his liability under JCE, Ramush Haradinaj is individually criminally responsible for his acts and omissions in that he planned, instigated, ordered, committed, or aided and abetted the crimes described and charged in Counts 1, 2, 3, 4, 15, 16, 23, 24, 31, 32, 33, and 34 of the indictment.

23. Alternatively to his liability under JCE, Idriz Balaj is individually criminally responsible for his acts and omissions in that he planned, instigated, committed, or aided and abetted the crimes described and charged in Counts 7, 8, 13, 14, 17, 18, 19, 20, 23, 24, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, and 37 of the indictment.

24. Alternatively to his liability under JCE, Lahi Brahimaj is individually criminally responsible for his acts and omissions in that he planned, instigated, ordered, committed, or aided and abetted the crimes described and charged in Counts 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 31, 32, 33, and 34 of the indictment.

JOINT CRIMINAL ENTERPRISE

25. Ramush Haradinaj, Idriz Balaj, and Lahi Brahimaj are criminally responsible, as participants in the JCE, for the crimes charged in each count of the indictment. Each crime charged in the indictment was within the common criminal purpose of the JCE and each Accused shared the intent with the other co-perpetrators to commit these crimes. Alternatively, to the extent that some of the crimes charged did not fall within the JCE, they were the natural and foreseeable consequences of the JCE and each Accused was aware that these crimes were the natural and foreseeable consequences of the execution of the JCE.

26. The common criminal purpose of the JCE was to consolidate the total control of the KLA over the Dukagjin Operational Zone by the unlawful removal and mistreatment of Serb civilians and by the mistreatment of Kosovar Albanian and Kosovar Roma/Egyptian civilians, and other civilians, who were, or were perceived to have been, collaborators with the Serbian Forces or otherwise not supporting the KLA. The common criminal purpose involved the commission of crimes against humanity under Article 5 and violations of the laws or customs of war under Article 3, including murder, persecution, inhumane acts, cruel treatment, unlawful detention, and torture. The JCE included the establishment and operation of KLA detention facilities and the mistreatment of detained persons at these facilities, including at the KLA’s headquarters at Jablanica/Jabllanicë and Glodane/Gillogjan, and at the Black Eagles headquarters at Rznić/Irziq.

27. The JCE began on or around March 1998, and continued at least until late September 1998. Its membership comprised Ramush Haradinaj, Idriz Balaj, Lahi Brahimaj, and other KLA soldiers who shared the intent to commit the crimes that were within the common criminal purpose of the JCE, and who participated in the execution of the crimes charged in this indictment, or otherwise contributed to achieving the common criminal purpose of the JCE. The other members of the JCE who shared the intent to commit the crimes that were within the common criminal purpose included Ramush Haradinaj’s brothers, Daut Haradinaj, Frashër Haradinaj, and Shkëlzen
Haradinaj, and others, including Nasim Haradinaj, Zeqir Nimonaj, Luan
Përvorfi, Krist Përvorfi, Nazmi Brahimaj, Naser Brahimaj known as “Rusi,” Alush Agushi, Myftar Brahimaj, Pjetër Shala, Arbnor Zejneli, and Azem Veseli.

28. By virtue of his participation in the JCE, each Accused is individually responsible for the acts and omissions of his two co-Accused and for the acts and omissions of other members of the JCE that were in furtherance of the common criminal purpose, and that were either within the object of the JCE or that were the natural and foreseeable consequences of its execution.

29. Each Accused is also individually responsible for the acts and omissions of other persons, who were not members of the JCE, but who were used by the members of the JCE to carry out crimes committed in furtherance of the common criminal purpose that were either within the scope of the JCE or that were the natural and foreseeable consequences of its execution.

33. Further specification of the functioning of the JCE and of the participation of each accused is provided in the charges and the statement of facts below.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

34. In 1998 the municipality of Dečani/Deçan had a population of 57,125, of which 55,886 were Albanian, 791 were Serb, and 448 were of other ethnicity. The population of the municipality of Đakovica/Gjakovë was around 131,700 with 122,856 Albanians, 3,211 Serbs, and 5,680 of other ethnicity. The population of the municipality of Istok/Istog was around 64,000, of which 51,343 were Albanian, 7,270 were Serb, and 5,381 were of other ethnicity. The population of the municipality of Klina/Klinë was around 75,000 with 66,683 Albanians, 6,306 Serbs and 3,386 of other ethnicity. The population of the municipality of Peć/Pejë was around 150,000 with 111,638 Albanians, 14,765 Serbs, and 13,788 of other ethnicity.

35. In early 1998, tensions increased between Serbian authorities and the KLA in the area surrounding Glodane/Gillogjan. Until early September 1998, Ramush Haradinaj's KLA headquarters were located in his family compound in his native village of Glodane/Gillogjan. The area between Glodane/Gillogjan and Dečani/Deçan was of critical strategic importance for the KLA because it connected Ramush Haradinaj's KLA headquarters in Glodane/Gillogjan to the border with Albania from where the KLA received arms and supplies throughout 1998. Glodane/Gillogjan also became an important recruiting centre for the KLA in the Dukagjin region and in the Operational Zones of Šalja/Shalë, Lap/Llap, and Drenica/Drenicë.

36. KLA forces mounted attacks on Serbian Police targets in the Dukagjin region and also on a neighbouring camp of Serbian/Montenegrin refugees located in the village of Babaloč/Baballoq, and, as a consequence, on 24 March 1998, Serbian Police forces surrounded the compound of the family of Ramush Haradinaj in Glodane/Gllogjani. Ramush Haradinaj and KLA forces under his command successfully repelled this attack. One Serbian policeman was killed and Ramush Haradinaj was wounded.

37. After 24 March 1998, KLA forces under the command and control of Ramush Haradinaj mounted a military campaign to seize control of the area between the villages of Glodane/Gllogjan and Dečani/Deçan and particularly the villages of Dubrava/Dubravë, Rznić/Irzniq, Ratiš/Ratishë, and Dašinovac/Dashinoc and to drive ethnic Serbs out of the villages where they were living. They also continued to launch attacks against the camp of refugees in Babaloč/Baballoq. This refugee camp had been the target of similar KLA attacks since 1997.

38. During March and April 1998, KLA forces under the command and control of Ramush Haradinaj, including the Black Eagles under the direct command of Idriz Balaj, harassed, beat, or otherwise drove Serb civilians and Roma/Egyptian civilians out of these villages, and killed many Serb or Roma/Egyptian civilians who remained behind or who had refused to abandon their homes. In the second half of April 1998, KLA forces under the command and control of Ramush Haradinaj succeeded in blockading parts of Dečani/Deçan for a period of approximately three weeks.

39. By mid-April 1998, much of the Serb population living in the Dukagjin Operational Zone had fled the area following acts of violence and persecution directed at Serb civilians by KLA forces. Over the course of several days following 19 April 1998, KLA attacks forced out or killed virtually every Serb civilian remaining in the KLA controlled parts of the Dukagjin Operational Zone.

40. During the following months, within the Dukagjin Operational Zone, and in particular in the municipalities of Dečani/Deçan and Peć/Pejë, KLA forces under the command and control of Ramush Haradinaj continued to mount similar attacks on Serb, Kosovar Albanian, and Kosovar Roma/Egyptian civilians, or other civilians, perceived as collaborators or perceived as not supporting the KLA, who were not taking part in hostilities. KLA forces, under the command and control of Ramush Haradinaj, carried out abductions in the Dukagjin Operational Zone. Dozens of civilians went missing. Between March 1998 and September 1998, in the municipalities of the Dukagjin Operational Zone, in addition to the victims mentioned in this indictment, the KLA abducted more than 60 civilians and subsequently killed many of them.

41. The village of Jablanica/Jabllanicë is in the municipality of Đakovica/Gjakova approximately 18 kilometres from Glodane/Glllogjan. From late 1995, Lahi Brahimaj, who lived in Jablanica/Jabllanicë, sheltered other members of the KLA in his house and assisted them in their transit through the area of Dukagjin. An armoury was established and Lahi Brahimaj's house was used to hold clandestine meetings. During this period, no armed actions were carried out in the Dukagjin area.

42. From at least March 1998, the KLA's Jablanica/Jabllanicë headquarters provided shelter to high-profile members of the KLA who were entering Kosovo and travelling to other areas of the province to establish commands. Ramush Haradinaj went to the Jablanica/Jabllanicë headquarters to receive medical attention and to recover from the injuries he sustained on 24 March 1998, when armed contact with the Serbian Forces took place at his family compound in Glodane/Glllogjan. After an offensive by Serbian forces in early September 1998, Ramush Haradinaj moved his KLA headquarters to the family compound of Lahi Brahimaj in Jablanica/Jabllanicë.
43. In mid-May 1998, the KLA established a make-shift detention facility at its Jablanica/Jabllanicë headquarters. The Jablanica/Jabllanicë detention facility was contained in a four-room house next to the family compound of Lahi Brahimaj, which contained the KLA’s Jablanica/Jabllanicë headquarters. Lahi Brahimaj had an office in the house. The KLA generally kept its detainees together in a room measuring approximately sixteen square metres in size and containing no furniture. Some prisoners were also thrown into the basement of the house, which was flooded with about half a metre of water, and detained there. During their detention, detainees were given very little food or water, were regularly beaten and subjected to other forms of physical mistreatment, and were denied medical treatment for their injuries. A number of prisoners at the Jablanica/Jabllanicë detention facility died as a result of their injuries, or were executed on orders of the Accused.

44. Lake Radonjić/Radoniq, and the concrete canal leading into a river which drains into the lake, were within the Dukagjin Operational Zone. The canal passes within approximately two kilometres of Glodane/Gillogjan. During the indictment period, KLA soldiers under the command and control of Ramush Haradinaj controlled the territory surrounding the lake. Permission from the KLA, in the form of a pass, was required to travel in the area. The Lake Radonjić/Radoniq canal area was Idriz Balaj's favoured execution site. Local residents were afraid to visit this area for fear of reprisals by Idriz Balaj and members of the Black Eagles.

45. During the end of August and the beginning of September 1998, Serbian Forces mounted a counter-offensive and temporarily retook the area surrounding Glodane/Gillogjan, including the Lake Radonjić/Radoniq canal area.

46. A Serbian forensic crime scene team then conducted an investigation in the vicinity of the canal leading to Lake Radonjić/Radoniq and the road leading to Dašinovac/Dashinoc.
47. On or about 12 September 1998, the team recovered human remains from 32 identifiable bodies in the Lake Radonjić/Radoniq canal area. Many of the bodies were found near one of only two small access roads to that area. The team also found two bodies on the road leading to Dašinovac/Dashinoc, approximately nine kilometres from Glodane/Gllogjan.

48. The bodies and remains were forensically examined in temporary mortuary facilities in Đakovica/Gjakova. Some of the remains that were recovered from the Lake Radonjić/Radoniq canal area and on the road leading to Dašinovac/Dashinoc were identified by Serbian authorities using traditional identification procedures. These remains included those of the following nine persons: Vukosava Marković and Darinka Kovač (Counts 7 and 8); Miloš Radunović and Slobodan Radošević (Counts 11 and 12); Hajrullah Gashi and Isuf Hoxha (Counts 15 and 16); Ilira Frrokaj (Counts 17 and 18); and Ilija Antić and Velizar Stošić (Counts 21 and 22). Other remains that were recovered were subsequently identified by international organizations using DNA tests. These remains included those of the following sixteen persons: Milka Vlahović (Counts 9 and 10); the mother of Witness SST7/04 (Counts 13 and 14); Zenun Gashi, Misin Berisha, and Sali Berisha (Counts 19 and 20); Malush Meha, Rade Popadić, Idriz Hoti, Afrim Sylejmani, Zdravko Radunović, Xhevat Berisha, Nurije Krasniqi, Istref Krasniqi, Kemajl Gashi, and Kujtim Imeraj (Counts 21 and 22); and Pal Krasniqi (Counts 31 and 32).

49. Some of the remains that were recovered from the sites described above remain unidentified, although tests have been conducted in an attempt to establish their identities. These remains consist of the bodies of around ten individuals. All of the remains show evidence of a violent death.

50. Cartridges and ammunition found by Serbian authorities in March 1998, during operations against the KLA in the villages around Głođane/Gllogjan (Gramočelj/Gramaqul and Pljančor/Plançar), are of the same make and identity as those found by Serbian authorities in September 1998 at the Lake Radonjić/Radoniq canal exhumation site.
CHARGES

COUNTS 1 and 2

51. On 28 May 1998, three armed KLA soldiers came to the home of Witness SST7/38 in Junik and forced the witness and the witness’ family and neighbours to leave their house and join a convoy of civilians leaving Junik in the direction of the Albanian border.

52. The witness’ group escaped from the convoy but was stopped at a KLA checkpoint and ordered to rejoin the convoy. After reaching the hamlet of Gacifer (a suburb of Junik), KLA soldiers took Witness SST7/38’s family and neighbours to an old mill in the woods and made them sit on the ground in the rain. Ramush Haradinaj arrived there about an hour later.

53. A KLA soldier told Ramush Haradinaj that the captured people were at his disposal and that Witness SST7/38 had information about the MUP. Ramush Haradinaj ordered the KLA soldiers to search the witness and the witness’ father and to obtain information from the witness, using force if necessary. Ramush Haradinaj then left.

54. The KLA soldiers beat Witness SST7/38’s father and permitted Albanian civilians to mistreat the detainees. They stripped Witness SST7/38 naked and placed a knife against the witness’ throat, forced the witness to eat a small plastic-coated book, and struck the witness on the face with a pistol. The witness and the witness’ father were tied together, back to back, using barbed wire. The soldiers threatened to kill them.

100. Pal Krasniqi was last seen alive on or about 26 July 1998 at the Jablanica/Jabllanicë KLA headquarters where he was detained. He was killed while in KLA custody. In September 1998 his remains were located in the Lake Radonjić/Radoniq canal area.

Upon his arrival at the KLA Jablanica/Jabljanicë headquarters, Lahi Brahimaj detained him with two other men. KLA soldiers beat SST7/03 until he lost consciousness.

104. While in detention KLA soldiers interrogated and beat the three men and tied them up. Between 13 July 1998 and 16 July 1998, Nazmi Brahimaj and Naser Brahimaj, also known as “Rusi,” repeatedly beat the two unknown prisoners.

105. On or about 16 July 1998, Witness SST7/03 was taken to an office where Lahi Brahimaj, Idriz Balaj, and two female KLA soldiers were present. Lahi Brahimaj invited the female KLA soldiers to beat Witness SST7/03, which they did using instruments. Lahi Brahimaj and Idriz Balaj encouraged the beating. During the beating Idriz Balaj accused Witness SST7/03 of being a Serbian spy and threatened him. Lahi Brahimaj encouraged Witness SST7/03 to commit suicide. Witness SST7/03 subsequently escaped.

106. In late July 1998, Witness SST7/03 was again abducted at gunpoint in Jablanica/Jabljanicë by Lahi Brahimaj. Lahi Brahimaj took Witness SST7/03 to Lahi Brahimaj’s house where he beat the witness. 107. On or around 23 May 1998, Kosovar Albanians Naser Lika and Fadil Fazlija (Fazliu), both from Grabanica/Grabanicë, were abducted in the village of Žabelj/Zhabel by KLA soldiers under suspicion of treason, for having allegedly supported the Democratic League of Kosovo (LDK). KLA soldiers took them to the Jablanica/Jabllanicë KLA headquarters. There, Lahi Brahimaj, Ramush Haradinaj, Idriz Balaj, and other KLA members threatened Naser Lika, Fadil Fazlija (Fazliu), and about twenty men from the village of Grabanica/Grabanicë, informing them that they could not live in Kosovo unless they freed their village from the Serbs. The KLA released Naser Lika and Fadil Fazlija (Fazliu) after a family member intervened and threatened a “blood feud.”

108. In July 1998, Lahi Brahimaj and other KLA soldiers again abducted Naser Lika at his house in Grabanica/Grabanicë and took him to the Jablanica/Jabllanicë KLA headquarters, where he was brought before Ramush Haradinaj and Idriz Balaj. Ramush Haradinaj told Lahi Brahimaj to go ahead with his “job.” A KLA soldier, “Bandash,” then beat Naser Lika with a baseball bat. Ramush Haradinaj repeatedly ordered the cessation and resumption of the beating. Idriz Balaj threatened to kill Naser Lika. During the beating, Ramush Haradinaj spat in Naser Lika’s face. KLA soldiers kicked him in the testicles while he lay on the ground. Naser Lika was then imprisoned for three days in the flooded basement of the second building in the compound. During this time he was again severely beaten. Thereafter, Naser Lika was forced to work in the kitchen of the KLA headquarters. After approximately three weeks, he managed to escape.

By these acts and omissions Ramush Haradinaj, Idriz Balaj, and Lahi Brahimaj committed as part of the JCE defined in paragraphs 26 and 27 above, the following crimes:

At the beginning of 1998, KLA soldiers entered the village of Rznić/Irzniq and formed a headquarters in the village in a building attached to the local school. Idriz Balaj and members of his unit, the Black Eagles, were stationed in these headquarters. Ramush Haradinaj, as the Commander of the Dukagin area, came regularly to the village of Rznić/Irzniq and ordered the villagers to defend the area against the Serbs and to dig trenches at locations he had selected.

110. In April 1998, KLA soldiers ordered Witness SST7/01 to participate in the digging of trenches with KLA soldiers. Witness SST7/01 was warned that if he did not participate he would be killed. Witness SST7/01 was sometimes forced to work for long periods of time without being given food or water. He was not paid for this work which lasted approximately three months. After this time Witness SST7/01 was forced by the KLA to carry out unpaid agricultural work.
111. On several occasions throughout 1998, Idriz Balaj used Witness SST7/01 as a “human shield” in the Dukagjin Operational Zone by forcing him to walk in front of Idriz Balaj and his KLA soldiers in order to draw enemy fire.

112. At the end of July or the beginning of August 1998, Idriz Balaj and four uniformed and masked KLA soldiers forced Witness SST7/01 and Witness SST7/02 to walk to the KLA headquarters in Rznić/Irziq. Idriz Balaj took Witness SST7/02 into the building to interrogate her about involvement or collaboration with the Serbian Police and military forces. After interrogating her, Idriz Balaj ordered another KLA soldier in the room to leave them alone. Idriz Balaj then forced her onto a bed and repeatedly raped her.

113. Witness SST7/02’s family reported the rape to the KLA local authorities. Idriz Balaj told KLA soldiers that he had been ordered to commit the rape. No action was taken against him.

114. Witness SST7/01 was taken into the headquarters building. Idriz Balaj placed a knife against Witness SST7/01’s throat and threatened to cut his head off because of his ethnicity. Idriz Balaj then told him that all members of his ethnic group had to leave Kosovo. Witness SST7/01 was then tied onto a metal bed frame. Idriz Balaj and KLA soldiers then beat him.
