The Accused

Mr. Radovan Karadžić

I, Iain Bonomy, Judge of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”), am seised of the “Accused’s Notice of Request for Inspection and Disclosure”, filed on 14 October 2008 (“Notice”), and hereby issue this order in relation thereto.

1. In the Notice, the Accused notifies the Trial Chamber that, pursuant to the Trial Chamber’s decision of 9 October 2008,<sup>1</sup> he has requested certain materials from the Prosecution. The Accused expresses a wish that there be a “public record of all communications” between himself and the Prosecution.<sup>2</sup> The Accused has annexed to the Notice the text of his request to the Prosecution.

2. It may be inferred from the Notice that the Accused requests that all inter partes communications in relation to these proceedings be publicly filed. This invitation to the Trial Chamber to serve as the monitor for routine correspondence between the parties at this stage of the proceedings is declined. There are times when notices, specifically those in response to an order of the Trial Chamber, are appropriate to file on the public record of the proceedings, and this is still open to the parties; however, there is no need to clutter the record with matters that are best dealt with between the parties unless and until the Trial Chamber is called upon to issue an order.

3. Accordingly, I, pursuant to Rule 54 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Tribunal, hereby ORDER the Accused and the Prosecution not to file inter partes correspondence on the official record of the proceedings, without prior authorisation of the Trial Chamber.

Done in English and French, the English text being authoritative.
