I, FAUSTO POCAR, President of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia Since 1991 (“International Tribunal”),

NOTING the “Order Withdrawing Confidential Status of Order to the Registrar and of the Registry Submission” filed on 1 December 2006 (“Order”);

NOTING that the dispositive paragraph of the Order currently reads:

“HEREBY INSTRUCTS the Registry of the International Tribunal to lift the confidential status of the Order of 29 November 2006 and the Registry Submission of 30 November 2006 and ORDERS that forthwith, these documents shall be considered as public filings.”

but should read as follows:

“HEREBY INSTRUCTS the Registry of the International Tribunal to lift the confidential and ex parte status of the Order of 29 November 2006 and the Registry Submission of 30 November 2006 but not of Annex I and Annex II to the Registry Submission of 30 November 2006 and ORDERS that forthwith, these documents shall be considered as public filings.”

ON THE BASIS OF THE FOREGOING,

HEREBY ORDER that the Order shall be amended to read as set out above.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.

Done this 5th day of December 2006,
At The Hague,
The Netherlands.

Judge Fausto Pocar
President
