TRIAL CHAMBER II of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (hereinafter "International Tribunal"),

BEING SEISED of the "Emergency Request for Leave Seeking Authorization to Accept Reply in Excess of Page Limitations Set by the Tribunal Due to Exigent Circumstances & Accused Blagojević's Reply to the Prosecution's Consolidated Response to Defence Motions for Production of Evidence" filed by the Defence for accused Vidoje Blagojević on 29 May 2002,

NOTING the Practice Direction on the Length of Briefs and Motions dated 19 January 2001,

CONSIDERING that the accused Blagojević, Obrenović and Jokić have faced three consecutive indictments, each incorporating additional accused, since their arrival at the International Tribunal,

CONSIDERING that the reasons set forth in the emergency request constitute exceptional circumstances,

HEREBY GRANTS the request and accepts the reply as filed (comprising 20 pages).

Done in French and English, the English version being authoritative.

Dated this thirty-first day of May 2002,
At The Hague
The Netherlands

Judge Wolfgang Schomburg
Presiding
