

THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL TRIBUNAL FOR THE FORMER YUGOSLAVIA

CASE NO. IT-04-75-I

THE PROSECUTOR OF THE TRIBUNAL

AGAINST

FIRST AMENDED INDICTMENT

The Prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, pursuant to his authority under Article 18 of the Statute of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia ("Statute"), charges:

GORAN HADŽIĆ

with CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY and VIOLATIONS OF THE LAWS OR CUSTOMS OF WAR, as set forth below:

THE ACCUSED:

1. Goran HADŽIĆ, son of Branko, was born on 7 September 1958 in the municipality of Vinkovci, Croatia. Prior to the conflict in Croatia, Goran HADŽIĆ worked as a warehouseman at the VUPIK plant in Pačetin, in the municipality of Vukovar, Croatia.
2. Goran HADŽIĆ had been a member of the League of Communists since his youth. Prior to 1990, Goran HADŽIĆ was President of the Local Community of Pačetin. In the spring of 1990, Goran HADŽIĆ was elected a councilman of the Municipal Council of Vukovar as a candidate of the League of Communists – Party for Democratic Changes /Savez Komunističke Stranke za Demokratske Premene/ ("SK-SDP"). Goran HADŽIĆ later joined the Serbian Democratic Party/Srpska Demokratska Stranka/ ("SDS"). Goran HADŽIĆ was elected chairman of the SDS for Vukovar on 10 June 1990. By March 1991, Goran HADŽIĆ was President of the Municipal Board of Vukovar, a member of the Main Board and Executive Committee of SDS in Knin, and Vice-President of the Regional Board of SDS for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Srem in Pakrac.

3. Prior to 25 June 1991, Goran HADŽIĆ was a leader in the Serbian National Council ("SNC"), a political forum of the Serbs covering the region of Slavonia, Baranja and Western Srem. On 25-26 June 1991, the SNC was transformed into the government of the so-called "Serbian Autonomous District /Sprska autonomna oblast/ Slavonia, Baranja and Western Srem ("SAO SBWS"). At the same time, Goran HADŽIĆ was appointed President of the Government designate of the self-declared SAO SBWS. Goran HADŽIĆ acted as President of the Government between 25 June and 25 September 1991. On 25 September 1991, Goran HADŽIĆ was officially appointed President of the Government of the SAO SBWS, as published in the Official Gazette.
4. On 26 February 1992, Goran HADŽIĆ was elected President of the so-called "Republic of Serbian Krajina /Republika Srpska krajina/" ("RSK"). Goran HADŽIĆ remained in this position until December 1993.

INDIVIDUAL CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY

Article 7(1) of the Statute of the Tribunal

5. Goran HADŽIĆ is individually-criminally responsible pursuant to Article 7(1) of the Statute for the crimes referred to in Articles 3 and 5 of the Statute as alleged in this indictment which he planned, instigated, ordered, committed, and/or aided and abetted. By using the word "committed" in this indictment, the Prosecutor does not allege that the accused physically committed any of the crimes charged personally. "Committed", in the context of the accused's liability under Article 7(1), refers to Goran HADŽIĆ's participation in a joint criminal enterprise.

Joint Criminal Enterprise

6. This joint criminal enterprise came into existence no later than 1 April 1991 and continued at least until at least 31 December 1995. Goran HADŽIĆ's participation in the JCE began no later than 25 June 1991 and continued until at least December 1993.
7. The purpose of this joint criminal enterprise was the permanent removal of a majority of the Croat and other non-Serb population from a large part of the territory of the Republic of Croatia ("Croatia") through the commission of crimes in violation of Articles 3 and 5 of the Statute as charged in this indictment. These areas included those regions that were referred to by Serb authorities as the “SAO Krajina” and the “SAO SBWS” (after 19 December 1991, the “SAO Krajina” became known as the RSK; on 26 February 1992, the “SAO SBWS” joined the RSK).

8. The crimes enumerated in this indictment were within the object of the joint criminal enterprise and Goran HADŽIĆ shared the intent for the commission of each of these crimes with the other members of the joint criminal enterprise.
9. Alternatively, Goran HADŽIĆ and the other members’ shared objective included at least the crimes enumerated in Counts 10 and 11. It was foreseeable that the crimes set out in Counts 1 to 9 and 12 to 14 might be perpetrated by one or more members of this joint criminal enterprise or by persons used by any member of the joint criminal enterprise to carry out the actus reus of the crimes forming part of the shared objective. With the awareness that such crimes were a possible consequence of the implementation of the objective of the joint criminal enterprise, Goran HADŽIĆ participated in that enterprise, thus he willingly took that risk.
10. Goran HADŽIĆ acted in concert with other members of this joint criminal enterprise including Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ; Milan MARTIĆ; Milan BABIĆ; Jovica STANIŠIĆ; Franko SIMATOVIĆ, also known as “Frenki”; Vojislav ŠEŠELJ; Radovan STOJIČIĆ, also known as “Badža”; Veljko KADIJEVIĆ; Blagoje ADŽIĆ; Radmilo BOGDANOVIĆ; Mihalj KERTES; and Željko RAŽNATOVIĆ, also known as “Arkan”.
11. Other members of this joint criminal enterprise included political leaders from the (Socialist) Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (“(S)FRY”) and the Republic of Serbia; members of the Croatian Serb and Bosnian Serb leadership; and others referred to collectively as “Serb Forces”. For the purposes of this Indictment and specifically the joint criminal enterprise of which the accused was a member, the term “Serb Forces” is used to refer to the following:
 - a) Members of the Yugoslav People’s Army (Jugoslovenska Narodna Armija, hereinafter “JNA”), later the Yugoslav Army (Vojska Jugoslavije, hereinafter “VJ”).
 - b) The newly-formed Serb Territorial Defence Forces (TO) in the SAO Krajina and the SAO SBWS which later became the Army of SAO Krajina (Srpska Vojska Krajine hereinafter “SVK”).
 - c) The TO of the Republic of Serbia.
 - d) The special units of the Republic of Serbia MUP and/or DB including groups or members of groups known by the following names: Special Purpose Unit of the MUP Serbia ("JPN" or "Jedinice za Posebne Namene"); Unit for Anti-Terrorism ("JATD" or "Jedinice za Antiteroristička Dejstva"); Special Operations Unit ("JSO" or "Jedinice za Specijalne Operacije"; Scorpions (Škorpioni); Serbian Volunteer Guard ("SDG" or "Srpska Dobrovoljačka Garda" led by Željko Ražnjatović aka "Arkan", also known as "Arkan's Men", "Arkanovci", "Arkan's Tigers", or the "Super Tigers"). Special units of the Republic of Serbia MUP and/or DB were also known as "Red Berets" or "Crvene Beretke" and/or "Frenki's Men".

- e) The newly formed special police and police forces of the SAO Krajina, later incorporated into the Republika Srpska Krajina (hereinafter "RSK") MUP, who were commonly referred to as "Martić's Police", "Martićevci", "SAO Krajina Police" or "SAO Krajina Milicija" (hereinafter, "Martić's Police").
 - f) The newly formed special police and police forces of the SAO SBWS, including the Serb National Security (Savet za Nacionalnu Bezbednost, hereinafter "SNB"), which were later incorporated into the RSK MUP.
 - g) Members of Serbian, Montenegrin and Bosnian Serb paramilitary groups (also known as "volunteer units"), including volunteers related to the Serbian Chetnik Movement and/or the Serbian Radical Party ("SRS") of Vojislav ŠEŠELJ, commonly known as "Četniks" or "Šešeljevci".
12. Members of this joint criminal enterprise implemented their objective by personally committing crimes. Alternatively, some or all of the individuals described in paragraph 11 were not members of the joint criminal enterprise, but were used by members of the joint criminal enterprise to carry out crimes committed in furtherance of its objective.
13. Goran HADŽIĆ significantly contributed to achieving the objective of the permanent removal of non-Serbs from large areas of Croatia through the commission of crimes in one or more of the following ways:
- a) In his capacity as the leader of the SNC, then acting President / President of the Government of the SAO SBWS and subsequently as the President of the RSK, Goran HADŽIĆ formulated, promoted, participated in, coordinated and/or encouraged the development and implementation of SAO SBWS/RSK governmental policies intended to advance the objective of the joint criminal enterprise. During 1991, 1992 and 1993, Goran HADŽIĆ attended and contributed to meetings with the Serbian and (S)FRY leadership and/or their agents defining these policies and represented the SAO SBWS/RSK in international meetings and negotiations.

- b) Goran HADŽIĆ was instrumental in the establishment, direction, coordination, use, support and/or maintenance of the government bodies ruling the SAO SBWS/RSK, which, in co-operation with the military and police, implemented the objective of the joint criminal enterprise through the commission of crimes charged in this indictment.
- c) Goran HADŽIĆ participated in and contributed to the creation, organisation, financing, direction and/or use of the SAO SBWS police and the SNB, who furthered the objective of the joint criminal enterprise through the commission of crimes as charged in this indictment. Goran HADŽIĆ gave orders to the SNB, whose commanders reported to him regularly. Members of the SNB participated in crimes, on some occasions in collaboration with Arkan's Men.
- d) Goran HADŽIĆ participated in and contributed to the creation, organisation, financing, direction and/or use of the local Serb TO of the SAO SBWS, the Serbian Volunteer Guard and the Serbian Chetnik Movement, who furthered the objective of the joint criminal enterprise through the commission of crimes as charged in this indictment. From at least 25 June 1991 to and including December 1993, Goran HADŽIĆ was the de jure commander of the TO forces.
- e) Goran HADŽIĆ participated in the provision of financial, material, logistical and/or other substantial assistance and/or support, and/or supervisory and political support necessary for the military take-over of territories in the SAO SBWS and the subsequent forcible removal of the Croat and other non-Serb population by Serb Forces. This included the facilitation of the acquisition and distribution of weapons to local Serbs in Croatia in furtherance of the objective of the joint criminal enterprise.
- f) Goran HADŽIĆ requested the assistance of and/or facilitated the participation of Serb Forces, and/or used these forces, in carrying out operations in furtherance of the objective of the joint criminal enterprise.

- g) Goran HADŽIĆ openly espoused persecutory policies and/or encouraged discriminatory violence in furtherance of the objective of the joint criminal enterprise.
- h) Goran HADŽIĆ failed to uphold his legal duty arising from his position of governmental authority to ensure respect for the law.

Planning, Instigating, Ordering and/or Aiding and Abetting

14. In addition to his responsibility through his participation in the joint criminal enterprise, Goran HADŽIĆ is individually criminally responsible for planning, instigating, ordering, and/or aiding and abetting the crimes charged in this indictment through the acts and omissions described in paragraph 13. Goran HADŽIĆ planned (through acts including those described in paragraphs 13 (a)-(f) and (h) in relation to the individual crimes charged); instigated (through acts and omissions including those described in paragraphs 13 (a)-(h) in relation to the individual crimes charged); and ordered (through acts including those described in paragraphs 13 (a)-(f) and (h) in relation to the individual crimes charged) each of the crimes charged in this indictment, with the knowledge required. Goran HADŽIĆ directly intended the crimes or was aware of the substantial likelihood that the execution of his plans and orders, and/or the carrying out of the acts and conduct which he instigated, would involve or result in the crimes charged in this indictment. Goran HADŽIĆ aided and abetted the crimes charged in this indictment through acts and omissions including those described in paragraph 13 in relation to the individual crimes charged. He was aware of the probability that the crimes charged would be committed and that his acts or omissions would substantially contribute to their commission.

Article 7(3) of the Statute

15. In addition, Goran HADŽIĆ is individually criminally responsible as a superior pursuant to Article 7(3) of the Statute for the crimes charged.
16. From at least 25 June 1991 and continuing until the end of December 1993, Goran HADŽIĆ was the highest civilian and political authority in the SAO SBWS and/or the RSK. In his capacities as acting President of the Government of the SAO SBWS (between 25 June and 25 September 1991); President of the Government of the SAO SBWS (25 September 1991 until 26 February 1992); and President of the RSK beginning on 26 February 1992, and pursuant to his de facto authority as the acknowledged leader of the Serbs living in Croatia, he was the superior of, and had effective control over, Serb Forces and subordinate Croatian Serb political and governmental personnel.

17. Goran HADŽIĆ knew or had reason to know that crimes were about to be committed or had been committed by the perpetrators described in the above paragraph through numerous sources, including:

- a) his own involvement in the preparation, design, instigation, ordering and/or execution of such crimes;
- b) his receipt of information about the commission of such crimes from other members of the joint criminal enterprise, the subordinates described in paragraph 16, members of the international community, the media, and/or other persons or agencies; and/or
- c) his personal observation of evidence of the commission of such crimes.

The term “committed”, as used in the context of Article 7(3) of the Statute, includes all modes of liability covered by Articles 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute.

18. Goran HADŽIĆ failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent the commission of crimes by the subordinates described in paragraph 16 and/or punish the perpetrators thereof. Goran HADŽIĆ’s conduct that demonstrates his failure to take such necessary and reasonable measures includes:

- a) his failure to order or initiate genuine or adequate investigations into credible allegations of the commission of crimes by the subordinates described in paragraph 16;
- b) his failure to report information about the commission or possible commission of crimes by the subordinates described in paragraph 16 to the appropriate authorities;
- c) his failure to discipline, dismiss, demote or refrain from promoting or rewarding his subordinates who were involved in the commission of crimes and/or who failed to prevent or punish the commission of crimes by their subordinates; and/or
- d) his failure to issue the orders that were necessary and reasonable in the circumstances to prohibit or put a stop to the commission of crimes by his subordinates.

THE CHARGES:COUNT 1
(PERSECUTIONS)

19. From no later than 25 June 1991 until the end of December 1993, Goran HADŽIĆ, committed in concert with others, planned, instigated, ordered, and/or aided and abetted persecutions of the Croat and other non-Serb civilian population in the SAO SBWS/RSK. In addition, Goran HADŽIĆ knew or had reason to know that persecutions were about to be or had been committed by his subordinates, and he failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or punish the perpetrators thereof.
20. Throughout this period, Serb Forces attacked and took control of towns, villages and settlements in the territories described in paragraph 7. After the take-over, Serb Forces and the local SAO SBWS authorities, committed persecutions designed to drive the Croat and other non-Serb civilian population from these territories.
21. These persecutions were based on political, racial or religious grounds and included the following:
 - a) The extermination or murder of Croat and other non-Serb civilians, including women and elderly persons, in Dalj, Dalj Planina, Erdut, Erdut Planina, Klisa, Lovas, Grabovac, and Vukovar in Croatia, as described in detail in paragraphs 23 to 38.
 - b) The unlawful imprisonment and confinement of Croat and other non-Serb civilians in detention facilities within and outside of Croatia, as described in detail in paragraphs 40 to 42.
 - c) The imposition and perpetuation of inhumane living conditions for Croat and other non-Serb civilian detainees in the detention facilities described in paragraph 40 to 42.
 - d) The physical and psychological mistreatment of Croat and other non-Serb civilian detainees in the mentioned detention facilities described in paragraph 40 to 42, including but not limited to beatings, sexual assault, other forms of torture, overcrowding, starvation, inadequate medical care, and mock executions.
 - e) The forced labour of Croat and other non-Serb civilians detained in the detention facilities described in paragraph 40 to 42 or under house arrest in their respective homes in Vukovar, Dalj, Lovas, Erdut and Tovarnik. The forced labour included digging graves, loading ammunition for the Serb Forces, digging trenches and other forms of manual labour at the frontlines.

- f) The imposition of restrictive and discriminatory measures against the Croat and other non-Serb civilian population, including but not limited to the restriction of movement; removal from positions of authority in local government institutions and the police; dismissal from jobs; and arbitrary searches of their homes.
- g) The robbing of Croat and other non-Serb civilians and looting of their homes and belongings.
- h) The deportation or forcible transfer of tens of thousands of Croat and other non-Serb civilians from the territories specified in paragraph 7, including the deportation to Serbia of at least five thousand inhabitants from Ilok, twenty-thousand inhabitants from Vukovar; and the forcible transfer to locations within Croatia of at least two thousand five hundred inhabitants from Erdut, as described in detail in paragraphs 44 to 45.
- i) The destruction of homes, other public or private property, cultural institutions, historic monuments and sacred sites of the Croat and other non-Serb population in Dalj, Dalj Planina, Vukovar, Sarvaš, Ernestinovo, Laslovo, Erdut, Aljmaš, Lovas, Šarengrad, Bapska, and/or Tovarnik, as described in paragraph 47.

22. Goran HADŽIĆ is criminally responsible for:

Count 1: Persecutions on political, racial, or religious grounds, a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY, punishable under Articles 5(h) and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

COUNTS 2 TO 4
(EXTERMINATION and MURDER)

23. From at least 25 June 1991 until the end of December 1993, Goran HADŽIĆ, committed, in concert with others, planned, instigated, ordered, and/or aided and abetted the extermination and murder of Croats and other non-Serbs in the SAO SBWS, as specified in paragraphs 24 to 38 of this indictment. In addition, Goran HADŽIĆ knew or had reason to know that extermination and murder were about to be or had been committed by his subordinates, and he failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or punish the perpetrators thereof.

24. In September and October 1991, Serb Forces, particularly the local Serb TO and Police of the SAO SBWS, arrested Croat civilians and kept them in a detention facility in the police building in Dalj. On 21 September 1991, Serb Forces including members of the TO of the SAO SBWS and Arkan's Men killed eleven detainees and buried their bodies in a mass grave in the village of Čelije. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I attached to this indictment.
25. Around 4 October 1991, Serb Forces including members of the TO of the SAO SBWS and Arkan's Men entered the detention facility in the police building in Dalj and beat, otherwise tortured, then killed twenty-eight Croat civilian detainees. The bodies of the victims were then taken from the building and dumped into the nearby Danube River. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.
26. On 18 October 1991, Serb Forces including members of the JNA, the TO of the SAO SBWS, and the Dušan Silni volunteer unit forced fifty Croat civilians, who had been detained for forced labour in the Zadruga building in Lovas, to march into a minefield on the outskirts of the village of Lovas, located approximately twenty kilometers south-west of the town of Vukovar. On the way to the minefield, one detainee was shot dead by these Serb Forces. Upon reaching the minefield, the detainees were forced to enter the minefield and sweep their feet in front of them to clear the field of mines. At least one mine exploded, and the Serb Forces opened fire on the detainees. Twenty-one detainees were killed either through mine explosions or gunfire. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.
27. On 9 November 1991, Serb Forces including members of the TO of the SAO SBWS, Arkan's Men and members of the Police of the SAO SBWS arrested ethnic Hungarian and Croat civilians in Erdut, Dalj Planina, and Erdut Planina and took them to the training centre of the TO in Erdut where twelve of them were shot dead the following day. The bodies of eight of the initial twelve victims were buried in the village of Čelije and one victim was buried in Daljski Atar. The bodies of the three additional victims were thrown into a well in Borovo. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.
28. Several days after 9 November 1991, members of the SNB of the SAO SBWS in co-operation with several members of Arkan's Men arrested and executed three civilians, two of them family members of Hungarian victims of the incident charged in paragraph 27 who had inquired about the fate of their relatives. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.

29. On 11 November 1991, Serb Forces including members of the TO of the SAO SBWS and Arkan's Men arrested five non-Serb civilians in the village of Klisa and two in Dalj and Bijelo Brdo. They took the detainees to a house in Erdut where they beat and interrogated them. Later that night, Arkan's Men took them to the TO training center in Erdut, where they were further interrogated. Two of the detainees who had Serb relatives were released. After their interrogation, the victims were killed and buried in a mass grave in the village of Čelije. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.
30. Between 18 and 20 November 1991, after the termination of the military operations in and around Vukovar, the JNA, assisted by local Serb TO forces, paramilitaries/volunteers, and other members of Serb Forces, deported thousands of Croat and other non-Serb inhabitants out of Croatia and into the territory of the Republic of Serbia.
31. On or about 19 November 1991, hundreds of non-Serbs were taken by Serb Forces from Vukovar Hospital to the Velepomet facility, located a few hundred meters from the JNA barracks in Vukovar. At Velepomet, these persons were separated based on political, racial and/or religious grounds and suspicion of involvement in the Croatian forces. Interrogations of some of these people were conducted at Velepomet in the course of which they were beaten, insulted, or otherwise mistreated. At least seventeen of them were shot dead at Velepomet by members of the Serb TO or other Serb Forces. A list of victims found in graves at Velepomet is attached to this indictment in Annex I.
32. On or about 20 November 1991, Serb Forces removed hundreds of Croats and other non-Serbs from Vukovar Hospital in the aftermath of the Serb take-over of the city. The majority of victims were transported to the JNA Vukovar barracks and then to the Ovčara farm located about five kilometers south of Vukovar. Some victims were mistreated and/or killed during the detention and transfer from Vukovar Hospital to the JNA barracks and/or from the barracks to the Ovčara farm. Serb Forces including JNA soldiers, local Serb TO forces, paramilitaries/volunteers, and others beat and tortured the victims for hours. During the evening of 20 November 1991, these Serb Forces transported most of the victims in groups of ten to twenty to a remote site between the Ovčara farm and Grabovo, where they shot and killed approximately two hundred and sixty of them. Most of the victims were buried in a mass grave; others were exhumed from other nearby locations or remain missing. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.
33. Following a request of Goran HADŽIĆ to retain those non-Serbs who were suspected of participation in the military operations, the JNA transported a large number of inhabitants of Vukovar to the detention facilities in Dalj on around 20 November 1991. There, Serb Forces including, local Serb TO members selected those suspected of participating in the defence of Vukovar. The selected detainees were interrogated, beaten and otherwise tortured. At least thirty-five were executed. The bodies of these individuals were transported to Lovas farm. The names of the known victims are set out in Annex I.

34. On 10 December 1991, Serb Forces, including members of the TO of the SAO SBWS and Arkan's Men and members of the Police of the SAO SBWS, arrested five non-Serb villagers from Erdut. The victims were taken to the TO training centre in Erdut and subsequently killed. The bodies of three of the victims were later disposed of in a well in Daljski Atar. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.
35. From 22 December 1991 to 25 December 1991, Serb Forces including members of the TO of the SAO SBWS, Arkan's Men and members of the Police of the SAO SBWS arrested and detained seven ethnic Hungarian and Croat civilians in Erdut and took them to the TO training centre in Erdut. On or around 26 December 1991, they were shot and killed. The bodies of six of the victims were buried in Daljski Atar. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.
36. On 21 February 1992, Serb Forces including members of the TO of the SAO SBWS and Arkan's Men and members of the Police of the SAO SBWS arrested four non-Serb civilians in Erdut. All of the victims were interrogated in the Territorial Defence training centre in Erdut and then killed. The bodies of the victims were buried in a mass grave in Daljski Atar. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.
37. On 4 May 1992, members of the Serb Forces, in particular special units of the Republic of Serbia MUP and/or DB, arrested five non-Serb civilians in the village of Grabovac. The civilians were taken away and killed. Their bodies were later buried in Tikveš Park. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I.
38. On 3 June 1992, members of the SNB, in co-operation with members of Arkan's Men, arrested Marija Senaši (born in 1937), a female family member of the Hungarian victims of the incident charged in paragraph 27, who had continued to make inquiries about the fate of her relatives. This woman was subsequently murdered and her body was thrown into a well in Dalj Planina. The name of the victim is also set out in Annex I.
39. Goran HADŽIĆ is criminally responsible for:

Count 2: Extermination, a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY, punishable under Articles 5(b) and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

Count 3: Murder, a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY, punishable under Articles 5(a) and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

Count 4: Murder, a VIOLATION OF THE LAWS OR CUSTOMS OF WAR, as recognised by Common Article 3(1)(a) of the Geneva Conventions of 1949, punishable under Articles 3 and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

COUNTS 5 TO 9
(IMPRISONMENT, TORTURE, INHUMANE ACTS and CRUEL TREATMENT)

40. From at least 25 June 1991 until the end of December 1993, Goran HADŽIĆ committed in concert with others, planned, instigated, ordered, and/or aided and abetted the unlawful confinement or imprisonment under inhumane conditions of members of the Croat and other non-Serb population and persons not taking an active part in the hostilities in the territories listed in paragraph 7 of this indictment. In addition, in relation to paragraph 41 (f) to (m), Goran HADŽIĆ knew or had reason to know that unlawful confinement or imprisonment under inhumane conditions were about to be or had been committed by his subordinates, and he failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or punish the perpetrators thereof.
41. Serb Forces, including JNA, local Serb TO and special units of the Republic of Serbia MUP and/or DB acting in co-operation with local and Serbian police staff and local SAO SBWS authorities and authorities in Serbia, arrested and detained thousands of Croats and other non-Serbs, including civilians and persons not taking an active part in the hostilities, in the following short- and long-term detention facilities:
- a) STAJIĆEVO agricultural farm in Serbia, approximately one thousand and seven hundred detainees.
 - b) Agricultural complex in Begejci in Serbia, approximately two hundred and sixty detainees.
 - c) Military barracks in Zrenjanin in Serbia, dozens of detainees.
 - d) Military prison in Sremska Mitrovica in Serbia, hundreds of detainees.

- e) Military prison in Šid, Serbia, approximately one hundred detainees.
- f) Police buildings and the hangar near the railway station in Dalj, SAO SBWS, hundreds of detainees.
- g) Territorial Defence training centre in Erdut, also referred to as Arkan's military base, SAO SBWS, approximately fifty-two detainees.
- h) Vukovar Hospital and the JNA Vukovar Barracks, SAO SBWS, at least three hundred detainees.
- i) Ovčara farm, near Vukovar, SAO SBWS, approximately three hundred detainees.
- j) Velepromet facility near Vukovar, SAO SBWS, hundreds of detainees.
- k) Police station in Opatovac, SAO SBWS, dozens of detainees.
- l) Stable or workshop in Borovo Selo, SAO SBWS, approximately ninety-two detainees.
- m) Zadruga building in Lovas, dozens of detainees.

42. The living conditions in these detention facilities were inadequate and characterised by inhumane treatment, overcrowding, starvation, forced labour, inadequate medical care, and constant physical and psychological assault, including mock executions, torture, beatings and sexual assault.

43. Goran HADŽIĆ is criminally responsible under Article 7(1) in relation to all detention facilities listed in paragraph 41, and under Article 7(3) in relation to detention facilities listed in paragraph 41 (f) to (m) for:

Count 5: Imprisonment, a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY punishable under Article 5(e) and Article 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

Count 6: Torture, a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY punishable under Article 5(f) and Article 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

Count 7: Inhumane acts, a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY punishable under Article 5(i) and Article 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

Count 8: Torture, a VIOLATION OF THE LAWS OR CUSTOMS OF WAR as recognised by Common Article 3(1)(a) of the Geneva Conventions of 1949, punishable under Article 3 and Article 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

COUNTS 10 to 11
(DEPORTATION, FORCIBLE TRANSFER)

44. From at least 25 June 1991 until the end of December 1993, Goran HADŽIĆ committed in concert with others, planned, instigated, ordered and/or aided and abetted the deportations or forcible transfers of the Croat and other non-Serb civilian population in the territories of the SAO SBWS. In addition, Goran HADŽIĆ knew or had reason to know that deportations or forcible transfers were about to be or had been committed by his subordinates, and he failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or punish the perpetrators thereof.
45. In order to achieve this objective, Serb Forces including SAO SBWS Police and SNB, the JNA, local Serb TO forces, Serbian and Montenegrin TO forces, the Serbian Volunteer Guard and other police units, including special units of the Republic of Serbia MUP and/or DB, attacked predominantly Croat towns, villages, hamlets and neighbourhoods. These attacks as well as the other crimes charged in this indictment were intended to compel the population to flee. After taking control of the towns, villages, hamlets and neighbourhoods the Serb Forces rounded up many of the Croat and other non-Serb civilians who had not yet fled and forcibly transported them to locations in Croatia controlled by the Croatian government or deported them to locations outside Croatia, in particular Serbia and Montenegro. In addition, Serb Forces, in co-operation with the local Serb authorities, imposed restrictive and discriminatory measures on the non-Serb population and committed other crimes charged in this indictment designed to drive them out of the territory. The majority of the non-Serbs who remained were ultimately deported or forcibly transferred.
46. Goran HADŽIĆ is criminally responsible for:

Count 10: Deportation, a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY, punishable under Articles 5(d) and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

Count 11: Inhumane Acts (Forcible Transfers), a CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY, punishable under Articles 5(i) and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

COUNTS 12 TO 14
(WANTON DESTRUCTION, PLUNDER OF PUBLIC OR PRIVATE PROPERTY)

47. From at least 25 June 1991 until the end of December 1993, Goran HADŽIĆ, committed in concert with others, planned, instigated, ordered, and/or aided and abetted the wanton destruction and plunder of the public or private property of the Croat and other non-Serb population, within the territories of the SAO SBWS; these actions were not justified by military necessity. In addition, Goran HADŽIĆ knew or had reason to know that wanton destruction and plunder of public or private property were about to be or had been committed by his subordinates, and he failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or punish the perpetrators thereof. This destruction and plunder was committed by Serb Forces and included the plunder of private and public property and the destruction of homes and religious and cultural buildings, and took place in the following towns and villages: Dalj, Dalj Planina, Vukovar, Sarvaš, Ernestinovo, Laslovo, Erdut, Aljmaš, Lovas, Šarengrad, Bapska, and/or Tovarnik; in addition, plunder was committed by Serb Forces in Erdut Planina and Čelije.

48. Goran HADŽIĆ is criminally responsible for:

Count 12: Wanton destruction of villages, or devastation not justified by military necessity, a VIOLATION OF THE LAWS OR CUSTOMS OF WAR, punishable under Articles 3(b) and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

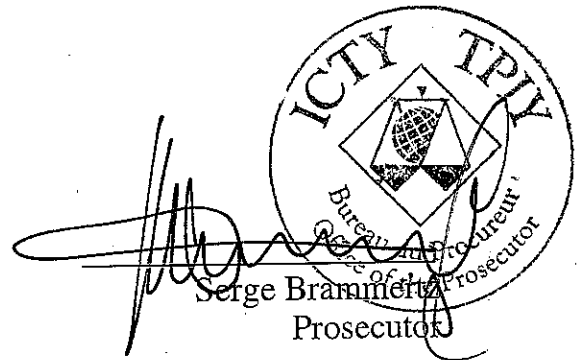

Count 13: Destruction or wilful damage done to institutions dedicated to education or religion, a VIOLATION OF THE LAWS OR CUSTOMS OF WAR, punishable under Articles 3(d) and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

Count 14: Plunder of public or private property, a VIOLATION OF THE LAWS OR CUSTOMS OF WAR, punishable under Articles 3(e) and 7(1) and 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS:

49. At all times relevant to this indictment, a state of armed conflict existed.
50. All acts and omissions charged as crimes against humanity were part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against the Croat and other non-Serb civilian population of or from large areas of Croatia.
51. For all crimes charged as violations of Common Article 3 of the Geneva Conventions of 1949, the victims were persons taking no active part in hostilities.
52. At all times relevant to this indictment, Goran HADŽIĆ was required to abide by the laws and customs governing the conduct of armed conflicts, including the Geneva Conventions of 1949 and the Additional Protocols thereto.
