THIS TRIAL CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”) is seised of the Accused’s “Eighth Motion for Order Pursuant to Rule 70: United States of America”, filed on 1 April 2014 (“Motion”), and hereby issues its decision thereon.

I. Background and Submissions

1. In the Motion, the Accused requests the Chamber to issue an order, pursuant to Rules 54 and 70 of the Tribunal’s Rules of Procedure and Evidence (“Rules”), to the effect that the provisions of Rule 70 should apply to the document which was requested by the Accused from the government of the United States of America (“U.S.”) and which the U.S. is now willing to provide to him.<sup>1</sup>

2. In the Motion, the Accused provides a letter from the U.S. dated 31 March 2014, in which the U.S. informed him that in response to his request for a document titled, “‘Contents of Intelligence Tab and Serb Objectives Tab’ to a 13 July 1995 memo to CIA Director”, it has agreed to provide the Accused with a declassified and redacted copy of the document.<sup>2</sup> However, the U.S. states that it will disclose the document to him once he has obtained an order pursuant to Rule 70 from the Chamber.<sup>3</sup> The U.S. notes that the document may not be used or disseminated further without its prior written approval.<sup>4</sup> In addition, it requests that only those members of the Accused’s defence team who have signed a non-disclosure agreement with the U.S. may have access to the document.<sup>5</sup> In the Motion, the Accused notes that he accepts all of the conditions proposed by the U.S.<sup>6</sup>

3. On 4 April 2014, the Office of the Prosecutor (“Prosecution”) informed the Chamber via e-mail that it would not respond to the Motion.

II. Applicable Law

4. Rule 70 of the Rules creates an incentive for co-operation by states, organisations, and individuals, by allowing them to share sensitive information with the Tribunal “on a confidential basis and by guaranteeing information providers that the confidentiality of the information they offer and of the information's sources will be protected".<sup>7</sup>

5. Paragraphs (B) through (E) of Rule 70 relate to material in the possession of the Prosecution, and paragraph (F) provides for the Trial Chamber to order that the same provisions apply mutatis mutandis to "specific information in the possession of the defence".

6. The Appeals Chamber has interpreted Rule 70(F) as "enabling the [d]efence to request a Trial Chamber that it be permitted to give the same undertaking as the Prosecution to a prospective provider of confidential material that that material will be protected if disclosed to the [d]efence", and has held that the purpose of the Rule is "to encourage third parties to provide confidential information to the defence in the same way that Rule 70(B) encourages parties to do the same for the Prosecution", a purpose which is served by explicitly affirming the applicability of Rule 70 to confidential material provided to the defence.<sup>8</sup>

III. Discussion

7. As noted previously, the Chamber must be in a position to assess whether the Rule 70 provider has consented to produce the information requested by the Accused.<sup>9</sup> Having reviewed the Motion and the information contained in Annex A, the Chamber is satisfied that the U.S. has consented to provide the document responsive to the Accused's request, so long as there is an order from the Chamber that applies Rule 70 to the document and the information contained therein. Accordingly, the Chamber shall issue such an order.

8. The Chamber also notes that by granting the Motion and making an order under Rule 70(F), it does not make a determination as to the relevance of the document to this case.
