The Accused:

Mr. Radovan Karadžić

I, Iain Bonomy, Judge of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”) hereby issue this order on the provision of the supporting material for the Prosecution’s “Motion to Amend the First Amended Indictment,” filed 22 September 2008 (“Motion to Amend”).

1. At the status conference held today, the Prosecution indicated that it had not yet furnished the Accused with the supporting material in B/C/S underlying its Motion to Amend and that it would most likely be in a position to do so by Friday of this week. Under the current circumstances, I consider that the time for the Accused’s response to the Motion to Amend should start to run from the date upon which he has received all the supporting material in B/C/S. Toward this end, it would be in the interests of good trial management for the Prosecution to file a notice on the official record of the proceedings informing the Trial Chamber of when the supporting material has been furnished to the Accused in B/C/S, so that there is no doubt as to the date upon which the Accused’s response to the Motion to Amend is due.<sup>1</sup> This notice should be accomplished in as brief a manner as possible, in order to facilitate the swift translation thereof into B/C/S.

2. Accordingly, I, pursuant to Rules 50, 54, and 65 ter of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Tribunal, hereby ORDER as follows:

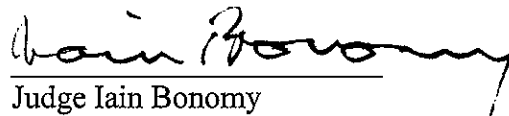

- a. The Prosecution shall file a notice of its provision to the Accused of the supporting material in B/C/S for its Motion to Amend, when this has been accomplished.

<sup>1</sup> The Chamber notes that this disclosure is pursuant to Rule 50 and that the Rule 66(A)(i) disclosures have been completed following the initial and further appearances, as they were materials related to the operative indictment.

- b. The Accused's 14-day period to respond to the Motion to Amend shall begin to run on the date upon which the supporting material was provided to him in B/C/S.

Done in both English and French, the English text being authoritative.
