ORDER LIFTING CONFIDENTIALITY AND INCORPORATED CORRIGENDUM

The Office of the Prosecutor

Mr. Serge Brammertz

THE REFERRAL BENCH of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”);

RECALLING the “Order to the Prosecution”, filed confidentially on 31 January 2008 (“Order”), whereby the Referral Bench addressed the submission in the “Prosecutor’s Third Progress Report”, filed confidentially on 14 December 2007 (“Progress Report”), that:

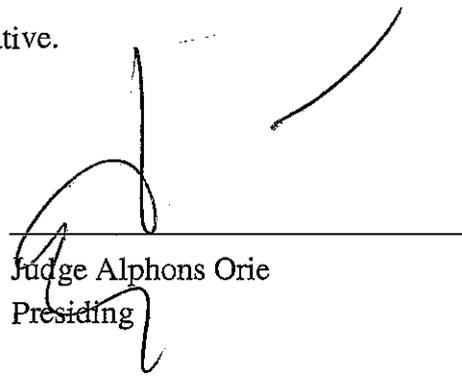

unless ordered otherwise by the Referral Bench, this constitutes, for the time being, the [Prosecution’s] final report in the Kovačević case in light of the [...] dismissal of the indictment. [The Prosecution] will, however, remain in close contact with the [War Crimes Prosecutor’s Office of the Republic of Serbia] and the [Organization for the Co-operation and Security in Europe] regarding the monitoring of the Accused’s mental health and future procedural steps. In case the proceedings against the Accused before the War Crimes Trial Chamber resume, the [Prosecution] will immediately notify the Referral Bench and from then on again submit regular progress reports;¹

CONSIDERING that while the Progress Report was filed confidentially, the Order does not make reference to material therein which would have required the Order to have been filed confidentially;

NOTING that the Progress Report was incorrectly referred to in the Order as having been a public filing, and further that the page numbering of the Order is incorrect;

HEREBY LIFTS the confidentiality of the Order and ORDERS the above corrections.

Done in English and French, the English version being authoritative.
