28. The accused and other participants in the joint criminal enterprise shared the intent and state of mind required for the commission of each of the crimes charged in counts 1 to 32.

Article 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal

- 29. Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ, while holding positions of superior authority, is also individually criminally responsible for the acts or omissions of his subordinates, pursuant to Article 7(3) of the Statute of the Tribunal. A superior is responsible for the criminal acts of his subordinates if he knew or had reason to know that his subordinates were about to commit such acts or had done so, and the superior failed to take the necessary and reasonable measures to prevent such acts or to punish the perpetrators.
- the consessioninged by course the From at least March 1991 until 15 June 1992, Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ exercised control over the four members of the "Serbian Bloc" within the Presidency of the SFRY (later the FRY). These four individuals were Borisav JOVIC, the representative of the Republic of Serbia; Branko KOSTIĆ, the representative of the Republic of Montenegro; Jugoslav KOSTIĆ, the representative of the Autonomous Province of Vojvodina; and Sejdo BAJRAMOVIĆ, the representative of the Autonomous Province of Kosovo and Metohia. MILOŠEVIĆ used Borisav JOVIĆ and Branko KOSTIĆ as his primary agents in the Presidency, and through them, he directed the actions of the "Serbian Bloc". From 1 October 1991, in the absence of the representatives of the Presidency from Croatia, Slovenia, Macedonia, and Bosnia and Herzegovina, the four members of the "Serbian Bloc" exercised the powers of the Presidency, including that of collective "Commander-in-Chief" of the JNA. This "Rump Presidency" acted without dissension to execute Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ's policies. The Federal Presidency had effective control over the JNA as its "Commander-in-Chief" and the TO units and volunteer units acting in coordination and under supervision of the JNA. Generals Veliko KADIJEVIĆ and Blagoje ADŽIĆ, who directed and supervised the JNA

- 31. Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ exercised effective control over KOS, the counterintelligence component of the JNA. His control over the leaders of KOS, particularly over General Aleksandar VASILJEVIĆ, enabled the engagement of KOS agents in Croatia. Agents of the KOS carried out the policies of Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ in Croatia by directing the actions of local Croatian Serb political leaders, directing and supporting the local Serb police and security forces, and introducing Serb volunteer groups into Croatia and supporting their activities.
- 32. Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ is therefore individually criminally responsible under Article 7 (3) of the Statute of the Tribunal for the participation of the members of the JNA, the TO units and the volunteer units acting in co-ordination and under supervision of the JNA in the crimes described in this indictment.
- 33. From the time Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ came to power in Serbia, he exercised control over key officials in the Serbian MUP, among them Radmilo BOGDANOVIĆ and Zoran SOKOLOVIĆ, who were both, at different times, Minister of Internal Affairs of Serbia, Radovan STOJIČIĆ, the Deputy Minister of Internal Affairs, and Jovica STANIŠIĆ and Franko SIMATOVIĆ, both high-ranking officials in the DB. Through these officials, Slobodan MILOŠEVIČ exercised effective control over agents of the MUP and the DB who directed and supported the actions of local Croatian Serb political leaders, and Serb police and security forces, and introduced Serb volunteer groups into Croatia and supported their activities. The accused Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ is therefore individually criminally responsible under Article 7 (3) of the Statute of the Tribunal for the participation of the members of the Serbian MUP and the DB in the crimes described in this indictment.

39. Beginning August 1991, the Serb forces including the volunteer units "Šešelj's men" and the "White Eagles" were in control of Voćin. On 13 December 1991, while the Serb forces withdrew from Voćin and the surrounding area, they went from house to house, killing a substantial portion of the remaining Croat civilian population. A total of thirty-two civilians were killed by these two units before they withdrew on 13 December 1991. The only survivors were those in hiding, whom the Serb forces did not find. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I attached to this indictment.

SAO KRAJINA

40. From about 7 October 1991, the Serb forces, comprised of the JNA, members of the TO and members of the Militia of the SAO Krajina (also known as the SAO Krajina Police and Martic's Police) were in control of the area of Hrvatska Kostajnica. Most of the Croat civilians had fled their homes during the attack in September 1991. Approximately 120 Croat civilians, mostly women, the elderly or the infirm, remained in the villages of Dubica, Cerovljani, and Bacin. On the morning of 20 October 1991, members of the Serb forces rounded up fifty-three civilians in Dubica and detained them in the village fire station. Over the course of the day and night ten were released, because they were either Serbs or had connections with Serbs. On 21 October 1991, the Serb forces took the remaining forty-three detained Croats to a location near the village of Baćin. In addition, the Serb forces brought at least thirteen non-Serb civilians from Baćin and Cerovljani to the same location. All fifty-six victims were killed there. At approximately the same time, the Serb forces took away an additional thirty civilians from Baćin and twenty-four from the villages Dubica and Cerovljani into an unknown location where they killed them. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I attached to this indictment.

- 41 From early August 1991 until 12 November 1991, the Croat villages of Saborsko, Poljanak and Lipovanić were attacked by Serb forces including JNA, TO and "Martić's Police". As soon as the Serb forces entered the villages, they killed all remaining non-Serb inhabitants they found.
- 42 On 28 October 1991, TO units entered Lipovača and killed seven civilians. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I attached to this indictment.
- 43. On 7 November 1991, JNA and TO units, in particular a special JNA unit from Niš, entered the hamlet of Vukovići near Poljanak and executed nine civilians. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I attached to this indictment.
- 44. On 12 November 1991, members of the JNA, "Martic's Police" and the TO entered the village of Saborsko where they killed at least thirty Croat civilians. Afterwards, the village was leveled to the ground. The names of the victims are set out in Annex I attached to this indictment.

COUNTS 14 to 16 (DEPORTATION, FORCIBLE TRANSFER)

- From 1 August 1991 until May 1992, Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ, acting alone or in concert with other known and unknown members of the joint criminal enterprise, planned, instigated, ordered, committed, or otherwise aided and abetted the planning, preparation, or execution of the deportations or forcible transfers of the Croat and other non-Serb civilian population in the territories of the SAO SBWS, the SAO Western Slavonia, the SAO Krajina, and the Dubrovnik Republic.
- In order to achieve this objective, Serb forces comprised of JNA, 68. TO and volunteer units, including the "White Eagles", "Seseli's men", "Dušan Silni" and "Arkan's Tigers", in co-operation with police units, including "Martic's Police", SNB and Serbian MUP, and others under the effective control of Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ or other participants in the joint criminal enterprise, surrounded Croat towns and villages and demanded their inhabitants to surrender their weapons, including legally owned hunting rifles. Then, the town and villages were attacked, even those inhabitants who had complied with the demands. These attacks were intended to compel the population to flee. the towns and villages, the Serb forces sometimes rounded up the remaining Croat and other non-Serb civilian population and forcibly transported them to locations in Croatia controlled by the Croatian government or deported them to locations outside Croatia, in particular Serbia and Montenegro. On other occasions, the Serb forces in cooperation with the local Serb authorities imposed restrictive and discriminatory measures on the non-Serb population and engaged in a campaign of terror designed to drive them out of the territory. The majority of the non-Serbs that remained were then deported or forcibly transferred.

69. According to the 1991 census, the Croat and other non-Serb population of these areas was approximately as follows:

SAO Krajina: 28 % Croats (70,708), 5 % others (13,101). SAO Western Slavonia: 29 % Croats (6864), 11 % others (2577). SAO SBWS: 47 % Croats (90,454), 21 % others (40,217).

Virtually the whole Croat and non-Serb population of these areas was forcibly removed, deported or killed. According to the 1991 census, the Croat and other non-Serb population of the Dubrovnik Republic was approximately 82 % Croats (58,836), 11 % others (7,818). The joint criminal enterprise did not achieve its goal of forcibly removing, deporting or killing the entire Croat and non-Serb population of the Dubrovnik Republic.

It was the objective of the Serb forces to detach this area from Croatia and to annex it to Montenegro. While the Serb forces seized the territory to the south-east and north-west of the city of Dubrovnik within two weeks, the city itself was under attack throughout the time alleged in this indictment.

- 92. The territories of the SAO SBWS, the SAO Western Slavonia, the SAO Krajina and the Dubrovnik Republic are indicated in the attached Annex III.
- 93. In the 1991 census, the population of the Republic of Croatia was 4,784,265 of which 3,736,356 (78.1%) were Croats; 581,663 (12.2%) were Serbs; 43,469 (0.9%) were Muslims; 22,355 (0.5%) were Hungarians; 106,041 (2.2%) were Yugoslavs; and 294,381 (6.1%) were others or undeclared.
- 94. In April and May 1990, the Republic of Croatia held elections in which the Croatian Democratic Union (HDZ) won a plurality of votes and secured a majority of seats in the Croatian Sabor (parliament). The new Sabor then elected the HDZ candidate Franjo TUĐMAN President of Croatia.
- 95. In advance of the 1990 elections, the nationalistic Serbian Democratic Party (SDS) was founded in Knin, advocating the autonomy and later secession of predominately-Serb areas from Croatia.
- 96. Between 19 August and 2 September 1990, Croatian Serbs held a referendum on the issue of Serb "sovereignty and autonomy" in Croatia. The vote took place in predominately Serb areas of Croatia and was limited only to Serb voters. Croats who lived in the affected region were barred from participating in the referendum. The result of the vote was overwhelmingly in support of Serb autonomy. On 30 September 1990, the "Serbian National Council", presided over by Milan BABIĆ, declared "the autonomy of the Serbian people on ethnic and historic territories on which he lives and which are within the current boundaries of the Republic of Croatia as a federal unit of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia".
- 97. On 21 December 1990, Croatian Serbs in Knin announced the creation of a "Serbian Autonomous District" and declared their independence from Croatia. Conflicts between Serbs and Croatian police forces erupted throughout the spring of 1991.
- 98. In March 1991, the conflict intensified when Serb police forces attempted to consolidate power over areas with significant Serb populations. The Serb police, headed by Milan MARTIC, took control of a police station in Pakrac and battles erupted when the Croatian government attempted to re-establish its authority in the area. At Plitvice, a bus carrying Croatian policemen was attacked by Serbs and another battle erupted. The JNA deployed troops in the area and issued an ultimatum to the Croatian police to withdraw from Plitvice.

- In March 1991, the collective Federal Presidency of the SFRY 99. reached deadlock on several issues including the issue of instituting a state of emergency in Yugoslavia. The representatives on the Presidency from the Republic of Serbia, the Republic of Montenegro, the Autonomous Province of Vojvodina, and the Autonomous Province of Kosovo and Metohia all resigned from their posts. In a televised address on 16 March 1991, Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ, in his capacity as President of the Republic of Serbia, declared that Yugoslavia was finished and that Serbia would no longer be bound by decisions of the Federal Presidency.
- 100. On 19 May 1991, Croatia held a referendum in which the electorate voted overwhelmingly for independence from the SFRY. On 25 June 1991, Croatia and the Republic of Slovenia declared their independence from Yugoslavia. On 25 June 1991, the JNA moved to suppress Slovenia's secession. the unbounce Salery President of the RANY
- 101. The European Community sought to mediate in the conflict. On 8 July 1991, an agreement was reached that Croatia and Slovenia would suspend implementation of their independence for 90 days until 8 October 1991. The European Community ultimately recognised Croatia as an independent state on 15 January 1992, and Croatia became a member of the United Nations on 22 May 1992.
- 102. On 18 July 1991, the Federal Presidency, with the support of the Serbian and Montenegrin governments and General Veljko KADIJEVIĆ, voted to withdraw the JNA from Slovenia, thereby acceding to its secession and the dissolution of the SFRY.
- 103. Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ's calls for the union of all Serbs in one state coincided with those agitating for the creation of a "Greater Serbia." The Serbs in the Knin Krajina region, in Eastern Slavonia, and in Western Slavonia began receiving increasing support from the government of the Republic of Serbia. By August 1991, Serb volunteer and police forces in these regions were being supplied and led by officials of the Republic of Serbia Ministry of Internal Affairs.
- 104. In the Knin area, the JNA forces began openly assisting the Serb police forces led by Milan MARTIC. They participated jointly in an attack on the Croatian village of Kijevo in August 1991. Throughout August and September 1991, substantial areas of Croatia came under Serb control as a result of actions by Serb military, volunteer and police forces, conducted with the support of the JNA.

- 105. In the Serb-occupied regions of Northern Dalmatia, Lika, Kordun, Banija, Western Slavonia, and Baranja, the Croatian and other non-Serb population was systematically driven out and the areas were incorporated into various "Serbian Autonomous Districts". The JNA remained deployed in the areas where the Serb insurgents had taken control, thereby securing their gains.
- 106. In August 1991, the JNA undertook operations against towns in Eastern Slavonia, resulting in their occupation by JNA and other Serb forces. The Croat and other non-Serb population of these areas was forcibly expelled. In late August, the JNA laid siege to the city of Vukovar. By mid-October 1991, all other predominately Croat towns in Eastern Slavonia had been taken by Serb forces except Vukovar. Non-Serbs were subjected to a brutal occupation regime consisting of persecution, murder, torture and other acts of violence. Almost all of the non-Serb population was eventually killed or forced from the occupied obon was restandibule origin our and the elect were incorporately.
- 107. The siege of Vukovar continued until 18 November 1991 when the city fell to the Serb forces. During the course of the three-month siege, the city was largely destroyed by JNA shelling and hundreds of persons were killed. When the JNA/Serb forces occupied the city, hundreds more Croats were killed by Serb troops. The non-Serb population of the city was expelled within days of its fall under Serb control.
- 108. In Geneva on 23 November 1991, Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ, Federal Secretary of People's Defence Veliko KADIJEVIĆ, and Franjo TUDMAN entered into an agreement signed under the auspices of the United Nations Special Envoy Cyrus VANCE. This agreement called for the lifting of blockades by Croatian forces on JNA barracks and for the withdrawal of JNA forces from Croatia. Both sides committed themselves to an immediate cease-fire throughout Croatia by units "under their command, control, or political influence" and further bound themselves to ensure that any paramilitary or irregular units associated with their forces would also observe the cease-fire.
- 109. On 3 January 1992, another cease-fire agreement was signed by Franjo TUĐMAN and Slobodan MILOŠEVIĆ paving the way for the implementation of an United Nations peace plan put forward by Cyrus VANCE. Under the Vance Plan, four United Nations Protected Areas (UNPAs) were established in the areas occupied by Serb forces. The The second of the property of the property of the second o

Vance Plan called for the withdrawal of the JNA from Croatia and for the return of displaced persons to their homes in the UNPAs. Although the JNA officially withdrew from Croatia in May 1992, large portions of its weaponry and personnel remained in the Serb-held areas and were turned over to the "police" of the Republic of Serbian Krajina (RSK). Displaced persons were not allowed to return to their homes and those few Croats and other non-Serbs who had remained in the Serb-occupied areas were expelled in the following months. The territory of the RSK remained under Serb occupation until large portions of it were re-taken by Croatian forces in two operations in 1995. The remaining area of Serb control in Eastern Slavonia was peacefully re-integrated into Croatia in 1998.

110. The SFRY existed as a sovereign state until 27 April 1992 when the constitution of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia was adopted, replacing the Constitution of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia of 1974.
