1. On 22 May 2013, the Prosecution requested the Chamber to lift the confidentiality of two exhibits, P325 and P2684.<sup>1</sup> The Chamber had previously declared moot a request by the Republic of Serbia for protective measures for these two documents.<sup>2</sup> The Chamber hereby INSTRUCTS the Registry to lift the confidentiality of exhibits P325 and P2684.

2. On 23 May 2013, the Registry requested permission for two photographers to take pictures in the courtroom just before the commencement of the court session on 30 May 2013. This request was approved on 24 May 2013 and the Registry was informed through an informal communication. The Chamber hereby puts this communication on the record.

3. The Trial Chamber further clarifies the case record in relation to protective measures initially granted to four witnesses. Witnesses Teodorović, Staničić, Ristić, and DST-035 initially testified provisionally with a pseudonym, face- and voice distortion, and in closed session. On 29 June 2011, the Trial Chamber granted the protective measures of pseudonym and closed session to Witness DST-035 under Rule 75 of the Tribunal's Rules of Procedure and Evidence.<sup>3</sup> The pseudonyms and the confidentiality of portions of the testimonies of Ristić, Teodorović, and Staničić were lifted on 14 June 2012.<sup>4</sup> The Trial Chamber hereby clarifies that the provisionally granted protective measures of face- and voice distortion for these four witnesses are also revoked.<sup>5</sup>
