The Accused
Zdravko Tolimir

THIS TRIAL CHAMBER of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 (“Tribunal”);

NOTING that certain documents belonging to Dragomir Pećanac and used during his testimony on 12 to 17 January 2012 were, by order of the Chamber, placed in the custody of the Registry<sup>1</sup> and later marked for identification;<sup>2</sup>

NOTING that the Chamber informed the parties of its intention to return the original documents to Mr. Pećanac, inviting the parties to make submissions in this regard if they wished by 23 March 2012;<sup>3</sup>

NOTING that in the “Prosecution’s Submissions Concerning the Return of Dragomir Pećanac’s Notebook”, filed on 23 March 2012 (“Motion”), the Prosecution does not oppose the return to Mr. Pećanac of his original documents, but requests a high quality scanned copy of the documents before their return;<sup>4</sup>

NOTING that the Defence did not make a submission on the matter;

CONSIDERING that the Chamber finds the Prosecution’s request for a better copy of the documents to be reasonable, and that there is no reason to keep the original documents and they should therefore be returned to Mr. Pećanac;

PURSUANT TO Rule 54 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Tribunal,

1. The Chamber invites the Prosecution to contact the Registry, which is the custodian of the record, to obtain a high quality copy of exhibits C00001 and C00002, ensuring that the documents are preserved in their original form; and

HEREBY ORDERS as follows:

2. The Registry shall return the originals of exhibits C00001 and C00002 to Mr. Pećanac.
3. The exhibit numbers C00001 and C00002 shall be vacated.

4. Once Mr. Pećanac has received the original documents, the Registry shall file an internal memorandum detailing the actions taken with regard to the copying and return of these documents and indicating that the exhibit numbers have been vacated.
