

The ICTY deals with war crimes that took place during the conflicts in the former Yugoslavia in the 1990's. The Tribunal was the first court to undertake the prosecution and adjudication of the gravest international crimes since the post-World War II Nuremberg and Tokyo trials.

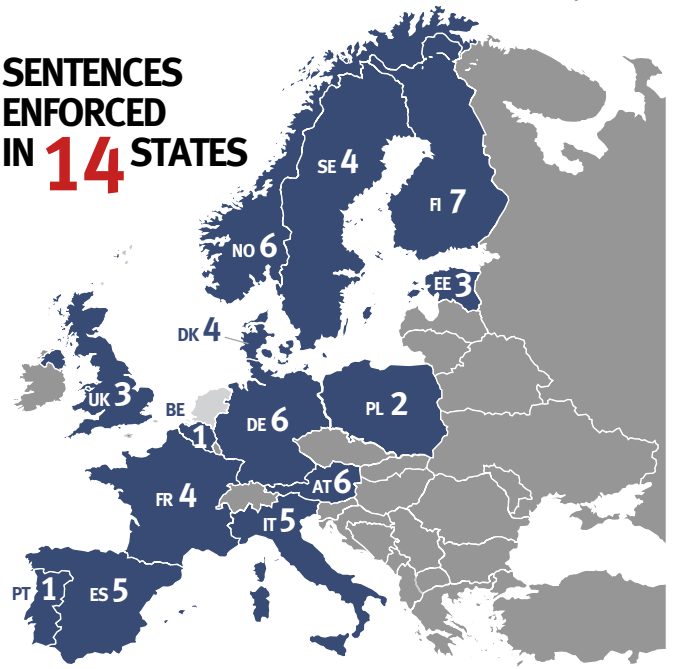

* Not including Vojislav Šešelj. Appeal case to be conducted by MICT.

13 INDIVIDUALS REFERRED TO COUNTRIES IN THE FORMER YUGOSLAVIA FOR TRIAL

SENTENCES ENFORCED IN 14 STATES

(Excludes accused whose sentences amounted to time spent in detention during trial, and those whose transfer is pending.)

MORE THAN...

4,650 WITNESSES

10,800 TRIAL DAYS

2.5 MILLION PAGES OF TRANSCRIPTS

4 TYPES OF CRIMES

Genocide

Crimes against Humanity

Violations of the Laws or Customs of War

Grave Breaches of the Geneva Conventions